

DaringLink takes the stage at the American Airlines Arena in Miami Florida. The crowd stands up and cheers for him as he begins.

Good evening Miami! Thank you for joining me today. It's a great feeling knowing you all have taken time out of your busy evenings to come see me and later discuss my policies. I love Florida and it's amazing to know I have such a great amount of supporters here!

I love Floridians and all people. The Democrats attack us Republicans for being racist and misogynistic people but that could not be farther from the truth. I love people from all backgrounds of life. Every single American living in this country legally and freely is a person I think should be given care and attention by every other American.

Crowd cheers

For decades now the Democrats have dragged people of color across the ground, promising freedom for people of color. Have they done anything as of yet? No. All of their promises have been broken by their own lifeless agenda of hatred. They only care about getting voters so they can wield more power. I am not one of those people.

While the scourge of racism plagues our country in more places than one should be comfortable with, this country is free for all people. The Democrats have lied to people by using their own ethnic background against them. This disgusting thirst for power must be stopped immediately or this entire country will be fueled by a fire of hatred that the Democrats have kept alive themselves.

Crowd boos

Vote for DaringLink and you will get a person who cares about people from all walks of life. All forms of discrimination plague our country and government, and I will raise an effort to end this injustice. My voice will echo through Washington and so will yours.

Thank you for joining me tonight and remember, a vote for DaringLink is a vote to end injustice and hatred!

The crowd stands up and begins to cheer in unison. DaringLink pulls up a chair as he begins his session for questions

u/DaringLink