

Super Session (Hypothetical) Examples

What could you do to bring people together with just $250?

With a Lawson's Super Session Award, the New Hampshire village of Malden put together a great afternoon that featured a Synchronized Pond Jump for the staff, teachers and students of Malden High!

Honoring his town's tire-manufacturing past, James Maout of South Mission, CT got 150 people to come out for the first-ever Hot Wheels night, with classic cars and a Matchbox loop-de-loop competition.

Nanden, New Jersey's first-ever Parade of the Gnomes brought more than 200 people out for a fun afternoon at the Nanden public housing community garden, thanks to a one-of-a-kind Super Session organized by Kendra Jones and her three sisters.

Mooovie Night in the tiny village of Landbury, VT brought the whole community out to a local dairy farm for family-friendly films & ice cream sundaes.
