

resolution transformation

Installation/performance

Laurus Edelbacher

2014

Resolution Transformation is a digital art installation /performance that embodies the essence of interaction with technology, emphasizing the transformative process of data manipulation and reinterpretation. This installation serves as an exploration of the cycle of creation, deconstruction, and reconstruction, guided by the principles of databending.

Video Link

A performance with machines without agreements: exploring the structure behind the surface and getting a view behind the black boxed digital systems!