

9.3.24

Player Agreement: As a participant in recess soccer, I understand and agree to follow the rules and guidelines set forth in this behavior contract. I understand that playing soccer during recess is a fun activity that requires good sportsmanship and cooperation with my peers. To play soccer, I will do the following:

1. I will listen to the designated recess supervisor and follow their instructions during recess soccer games.
2. I will not argue in any way with the recess supervisor.
3. I will respect my fellow players, opponents, and the rules of the game.
4. I will play fairly and avoid any rough or aggressive behavior.
5. I will share the ball with my teammates and give everyone a chance to participate.
6. I will accept the outcome of the game with grace, whether my team wins or loses.

Words of Encouragement

1. I will use positive and supportive language with my teammates and opponents.
2. I will encourage my teammates, even if they make mistakes.
3. I will avoid using hurtful or negative words towards anyone on the field.

Consequences for Violations

1. Warning: If I violate any of the rules or guidelines, I will receive one warning from the recess supervisor.
2. Sit-Out: If I continue to violate the rules after receiving a warning, I may be asked to sit out of recess soccer for 3 days.
3. Loss of Privilege: If my behavior persists despite warnings, I may lose the privilege of participating in recess soccer for a set period of time.

(Inappropriate responses to “We cannot do soccer today, sorry.” such as shouting, pounding the tables, or yelling at teachers or paras will result in loss of soccer for the whole grade band for a week. Without exception. -Moe/Shepherd)
