

How to Edit a Discussion Title

Sometimes you start a new thread on Notebook only to discover - oh the horror! - that you've got a typo in the discussion title. Well, never fear - Notebook allows you to edit the title of any discussion you've created. You can change that 'charatcer' to a 'character' in a few simple steps.

Instructions Only

1. Navigate to the forum discussion whose title you wish to change and click to view the thread.
2. Right underneath the title, click Edit Topic.
3. Your cursor will be inside the Title field where you can type in a new title, or simply edit the old title. Once you're happy with your change, click the Update Topic button.
4. You will be taken to the discussion page with the new and updated title.

And that's it! Typos fixed.

Happy worldbuilding!

Instructions with Screenshots

1. Navigate to the forum discussion whose title you wish to change. I'm going to change my title "Charatcer Critique (please)" because of all my typos. Click to view the thread.

2. Right underneath the title, click Edit Topic.

3. Your cursor will now be inside the Title field where you can type in a new title, or simply edit the old title. I'm going to change it to "Character Critique (please)" with the typos fixed. Once you're happy with your change, click the Update Topic button.
