

“The Meaning of Life” (Rachels) Group Jigsaw

Instructions:

1. Choose a scribe for your group to record your answers to the following questions.
Scribes: make a copy of this document to record your answers. PUT EVERYONE'S NAMES IN THE TITLE of your copied doc and resubmit it to me at the end of your discussion. (It is fine to share the doc with everyone in your group as well)
2. Discuss your assigned section with attention to the questions below.
3. Scribes: please cut and paste your group's answers to the following questions into the WHOLE GROUP SHARED DOC.
4. Everyone: Open the WHOLE GROUP SHARED DOC when we return to whole group discussion.

1. Summarize the main points of your section. Include an explanation of key terms from your section.
--

2. Find a quote that stands out and seems to exemplify the “thesis” or big insight of that section.

3. Write a philosophical question for your section that a person searching for the meaning of life might seek to answer for themselves.
