

Films Making the Case for Single Payer

- American Hospitals: Healing a Broken System 59 min. Takes a deep dive into the out-of-control cost of hospitals and their transformation into a money-driven big business. (Newer movie for community showing. Contact Tom Sincic: sincict@gmail.com)
- Big Money Agenda 45 min. Looks at the role of money in politics and Citizens United have had on impeding the success of healthcare reform in the United States, as well as common sense solutions that will get our democracy back on track.
- Big Pharma: Market Failure 51 min. Digs deep to answer key questions; among them, do free market principles impact drug prices and help control healthcare costs?
- Critical Care: America vs. the World 56 min. This PBS special examines how four other nations achieve universal care for less money, with better outcomes.
- FIX IT: Healthcare at the Tipping Point 58 min. Takes an in-depth look into how our dysfunctional US healthcare system is damaging our economy, discouraging physicians and negatively impacting the nation's health.
- Now is the Time 1 hr. 10 min. Delves into what single payer healthcare is, how it saves money, and what behind-the-scenes heroes are doing to clear the fog of misperception that keeps us from moving forward.
- Off the Table 23 min. How Canadian style Medicare could cover everyone without co-pays, deductibles or premiums, and remove a big obstacle labor faces in contract negotiations.
- Sicko 2 hr. 4 min. Michael Moore's 2007 full-length feature about the American healthcare system.
- The Health Care Movie 65 min. This documentary provides the real story of how the health care systems in Canada and the United States evolved to be so completely different.

- PBS FRONTLINE: Sick Around the World - 2008 documentary about health care in 5 different countries