

AUDIT THE VOTE calls:

Script: "My name is ____, and I'm a registered voter. I'm urging you to support the call to audit the vote, investigate voter suppression, and Russian tampering of US election results."

DOJ Public Comment Line (202) 353-1555

ELECTORAL COLLEGE #SaveUS calls:

Script: "I'm _____. I'm a US voter and I'm asking you to vote with the popular majority on December 19th, for Hillary Clinton."

JUST ADDED: PRIORITY: Senator Carlyle Begay AZ (sympathetic Republican) (602) 926-5862 (Senator Begay is not an elector; ask him to urge his state electors to vote with the growing popular majority, for Hillary Clinton)

(614) 644-6041 for Elector Marlene Anielski (House Rep - OH-R)

(614) 466-8104 for Elector Theresa Gavarone (House Rep - OH-R)

(850) 717-5105 for Elector Carlos Trujillo (House Rep - FL-R)

(850) 717-5035 for Elector Blaise Ingoglia (Rep - FL-R)

(512) 463-5770 for Carlos Cascos, Texas Secretary of State and native Mexican

Script: "I'm _____. I'm a US voter and I'm asking you to urge your state electors to vote with the popular majority on December 19th, for Hillary Clinton."

(202) 224-5323 for Senator Ron Johnson's Washington office

(602) 957-7770 press 100 to leave a message for the Arizona Republican Party Office

(608) 266-2517 Wisconsin Senate Office Voicemail

(202) 225-3031 ext. 6 for the Wisconsin House of Reps D.C. Office (if this number doesn't work, tweet at Paul Ryan @SpeakerRyan)

*(602) 542-4331 press 2 then press 1 for the AZ Gov. Doug Ducey's Office, who called Trump's words, "insulting and terribly demeaning to women."

- *THIS office number no longer working.
- Tweet at Governor Ducey: copy and paste: Governor Ducey, please urge your state electors to vote with the overwhelming popular majority on Dec 19 for Hillary Clinton. @dougducey