

AVALON TEACHING FARM, L3C EQUINE STUDIES

ALL EQUINE STUDIES COURSES ARE EFFECTIVELY LAB COURSES. THERE ARE REQUIRED READINGS, LECTURES, AND HANDS-ON PORTIONS OF EACH CLASS. QUIZZES, TESTS AND PRACTICUMS MUST BE PASSED AT 85% TO ACHIEVE CERTIFICATES OF COMPLETION.

INTRO TO EQUINE STUDIES

This course is an overview of many aspect of equine studies, including:

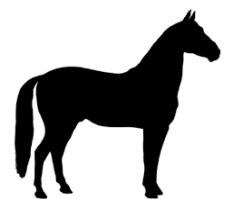

Breeds
Care
Colors
Handling
Health

History
Industry
Nutrition
Parts
Tack

Uses

EQUINE STUDIES I

A continuance and more in-depth look at the topics introduced in Intro to Equine Studies with the addition of a final presentation.

Further specialized courses may be taken after successful completion of Equine Studies I:

- EQUINE ANATOMY & PHYSIOLOGY
- EQUINE BUSINESS MANAGEMENT
- EQUINE CAREER EXPLORATION
- EQUINE DISEASES & INJURIES
- EQUINE NUTRITION
- EQUINE STABLE & FARM MANAGEMENT
- EQUINE REPRODUCTION

Equine focus in other academic areas, no prerequisites:

- EQUESTRIAN LITERATURE AND COMPOSITION
- EQUESTRIAN MATH AND ECONOMICS
- HISTORY OF THE WORLD THROUGH HORSES
- HORSES AND ART

Physical Education! Obviously, horseback riding is a sport!