

Article 7: State Justices

1. State Justices can bring lawsuits and file amicus briefs in other states and at the Supreme Court level. This shall otherwise not impact their ethical norms
2. State Justices shall have one (1) week from a petition posted on a state court's subreddit to grant or deny a writ of certiorari.
3. State Justices shall have two (2) weeks from closing arguments to write and publish opinions regarding the case.
4. An extension of arguments or opinions may be granted by the State Justices. State Justices may petition the Head State Clerk if they need an extension in their own deliberations.
5. Strikes shall be given if a judge has not completed obligations to the court. Three strikes given to a single judge sees them removed from the court
 - a. Judges who are active but are unable to submit the appropriate information on time due to negligence from an inactive judge SHALL NOT get a strike. Strikes can be removed if a justices shows a pattern of being active over three (3) months
 - b. Judges may appeal strikes given to the Head State Clerk
