

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy is designed to inform users of the Voice Lullabies Listen application ("app") developed by Orduwolf, about how their personal information is collected, used, and protected. This policy is designed to protect the privacy of those who use our app.

Collected Information

The Voice Lullabies Listen app does not collect users' personal information. Since our app does not have any registration or login process, we do not collect users' names, email addresses, phone numbers, or any other personal information.

Use of User Data

The Voice Lullabies Listen app does not collect users' personal information, so there is no need to use this information. There is no tracking or monitoring of how users use our app or access any content.

Cookies

The Voice Lullabies Listen app does not place or use cookies on users' browsers.

Third Party Links

Our app may contain links to third-party websites or services. However, we do not have control over the privacy policies of these redirected websites or services. Therefore, we recommend that you review the privacy practices of these websites or services.

Changes to Privacy Policy

The privacy policy of the Voice Lullabies Listen app may be updated from time to time. If such changes are made, the new policy will be published here on the effective date of the changes and will be notified to our users.
