

MUN: Doublefallen - 25 - I'm fairly certain my discord is @doublefallen too. Feel free to chat, plotting or OOC, I'll probably take a mo to open up, but I mean no harm. May have issues processing information due to Dyspraxia. If you've been exposed to my government name in the sharing of this google doc - No, you have not. I ask you not to use my government name to refer to me under any circumstances for my privacy. (Siv, if you are reading this, get some rest, and you are the only exception to this government name rule. I trust you implicitly)

- I'm running this blog off a mediocre Samsung pad, and don't have access to a computer, so I am limited in just how well formatted my posts can get, but I assure you, I am well used to tumblr-wrangling, and have my workarounds. Please excuse the scuff!
- I am Mutuals only and semi-selective, for my own comfort and peace of mind. This means that I will not interact bar a follow if I'm interested if you do not follow me and I do not follow you. Please do the same for me; if I have repeated issues with attempted ic interaction whilst not mutuals, i will block.
- If you have problems with me or one of my mutuals, PM me, and I will listen and respond accordingly.
- There will be no mention of IRL politics on any of my RP blogs, and anything alluding to this will be blocked/deleted as I see fit. RP is an escape from all of that horseshit, and I will keep it that way, both for my own sanity and that of others. I ask that you tag IRL politics somehow.
- I'm not comfortable interacting with Pokemon Irl blogs in a RP sense. I like reading it, but I write in an entirely different style.
- I am mutuals only, and semi-selective. This means that I will only interact with those who follow me - and I follow them.
- Personals will be soft blocked on sight, unless i can tell that they're the main to a rp blog, or a hub. I do not RP with personal blogs, please do not ask to.
- I ask that personal blogs, main or hub or not, do not reblog my RP threads or IC posts - as this clutters up my feed and makes it harder to find actual RP interactions.
- Godmodding- Essentially taking control of any of my muses or anything of the like - will not be tolerated, and I'll request any instances be fixed if it occurs.
- I have a bad memory, and work in a busy restaurant, so I'm prone to vanishing during busy periods, so if I forget to reply to a thread, it's on me. Just buzz me a reminder and I'll get my butt in gear and fire off a reply as soon as I am able.
- I'm down to ship, but be aware that we will need to both build a relationship and chemistry. I'm of age, but I'm not comfortable writing smut. I may let iris/diantha/any other adult muse i'm using this doc for be suggestive sometimes. as a treat. Thyra, Isana, Calem and Serena will not be allowed to make such remarks due to their age, and anything sent to these characters of a suggestive nature will result in an immediate blocking.
- Please, if you want to reblog a meme from me, please send something in, or go back to the source/ as far back as possible.
- All likes and follows come from @doublefallen , which is the main to this blog, and all my other blogs.

- I use a three chances system. I'll let you know the first two times, and if it gets to a third occasion with the same issue, I softblock. Fourth, I block.
- I do interact with OC'S, but you gotta have at least a minimal amount of information up about them. Name, age, pokémon team, that sort of stuff. I don't want to be left floundering about in the dark, and if you don't have an accessible one, I won't be able to RP properly with you, so chances are that I won't.
- Please let me know if I mess up with my tagging, or you want a specific tag so you can blacklist easily.
