

Your Good Work Goal

Lesson 4.1

Name:

Date:

Use the chart below to identify and analyze a goal you have for yourself, using the concepts we have covered in these lessons together.

Write down one goal you would like to achieve in the future related to your work, whatever that means to you. (You may want to refer back to your personal mission statement in order to choose a goal.)

(Note: Your goal can be something you want to achieve in the coming months, in one year, or in many years.)

The Good Project

YEAR 2, UNIT 4

THEGOODPROJECT.ORG

What is guiding or influencing your goal? Use the boxes below to consider some of the concepts we have explored together.

1-2 of your most important values related to this goal:

A role model or mentor who has inspired this goal:

A responsibility that this goal would fulfill:

A role or identity you would be satisfying with this goal:

How will you do Good Work in relation to this goal? Share one or two ideas for each of the 3 Es of Good Work below.

Excellence

Ethics

Engagement

The Good Project

YEAR 2, UNIT 4

THEGOODPROJECT.ORG

When you encounter dilemmas in pursuit of this goal, what are two strategies you will use to navigate those situations?

Strategy 1:

Strategy 2:

List the other stakeholders in the field who you might encounter as you pursue your goal. How aligned or misaligned do you think the stakeholders in this field or area are?

The Good Project

YEAR 2, UNIT 4

THEGOODPROJECT.ORG

Finally, what is one reflection strategy you would like to continue to practice in your daily life as you pursue this goal?