

Weekly Mooncast

May 16 - 22, 2022

- Full Moon in Sagittarius: Go big with your business visions and level up your skills and flex your professional muscles
- Full Moon & Waning Gibbous in Capricorn: Focus on building your expertise and positioning in your industry
- Waning Gibbous in Aquarius: Lean into the humanitarian values you have in your business and how to steer your community in the direction of what's important to them

Monday, May 16

Void Moon from 2:28 am - 4:50 am PST [Scorpio to Sagittarius]

- Moving through a transformation and feelings like being in limbo
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Water to Fire = cleansing and releasing

Full Moon in Sagittarius begins at 4:51 am PST

Big Vision Vibes

- Shine a big spotlight on the WHY in your business and reach for bigger, broader and more expansive goals
- See the bigger picture of what horizon you're moving towards and the major milestones you will need to plan your way there
- Use inspiration to connect with others and fuel passionate content
- Focus on learning more advanced levels in a skill or topic you know is necessary to develop expertise in your industry
- Full Moon: High energy and last push to complete tasks, outward efforts

If you're high energy/in a work mood: Be bold in putting yourself out there right now because your ability to show up in your business with clarity will make a big impact on your success. Productivity, implementation and action meet big visions, far-reaching goals and inspiration. If you've resurfaced after a period of deep solitude and personal revelations, you might feel the need to share something empowering with the world. You can strategically use this to promote an offering or program, as a powerful vehicle to both help your audience and express yourself. This Sagittarius energy is perfect for not only taking action but also spurring others into action as well, so let yourself be bold about it!

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: Go out of your way to plan a personal journey of nourishment (aka vacation) in whatever form is possible for you. It could be 10 minutes in the shower, an afternoon playing a fun game or a trip to the park. Regardless of what you do, the idea here is for you to identify what is most going to make you feel good right now and go get that need filled.

Social Media & Clients:

- Illustrate the benefits of your offer through the perspective of freedom, knowledge, and personal growth.
- If your content helps them to become certified, to learn a new method, and is hands-on, this is a great time to share it/teach it/show it.
- Schedule any clients now that need a pick me up, pep-talk or inspiration
- Dreaming big is the best focus for content with this moon
- Sagittarius is also interested in personal and professional freedom, so emphasizing how your offerings will help your clients achieve that can be especially lucrative

- The strong influence here is on developing self-awareness, creating abundant mindsets and pushing beyond one's previous limits

Moon Boosts:

Aries Venus, Jupiter & Chiron

- Venus brings feminine in fire helps us assert ourselves in a soft and inviting, yet fully empowered way.
- Jupiter in fiery Aries brings a rush of opportunities that give you a chance to prove your mettle, ignite your passions and get you in touch with how YOU are at the centre of your own business success.
- Chiron focuses on our own identity wounds and how they've held us back from living our authenticity. How can we move through them and heal?

Sun Square Saturn

We can feel pressured during this transit, and be at risk for depressive emotional and mental thought patterns. It can feel like we're trying to move uphill, as we are standing in quicksand with rocks shackled to our ankles. All forward movement can feel like it is being met with intense resistance. It is important at this time to not take things personally, it is not a sign from the universe that you should just give up, or that this isn't for you. It's simply a timeout.

It is important to keep moving forward, pace ourselves, and challenge ourselves to find creative ways to do things that help us feel more in control and that we are making progress. This is helping to forge our determination for the work ahead, if you get kicked down, get back up and follow it up with an extra few steps forward.

Procrastination at this point can actually make us feel worse about ourselves and also diminish our momentum, so even though it may feel like you're not making progress, there is just a delay in the energy, and you're not able to see the results just yet. Keep going.

Tuesday, May 17

Void Moon begins at 8:59 pm PST [Sagittarius to Capricorn]

- Simmering down from the excitement and thinking more seriously about what needs to be accomplished over the next few days
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Fire to Earth = putting creativity into practice & structuring

Mars Conjunct Neptune

Imagine trying to drive full speed... into a thick fog. If you're in a hurry to get something, this energy can create immense frustration, since Neptune obstructs the way forward. Try not to make major decisions under this influence, since you might not have all the facts and could overlook their importance. We could make moves that aren't ultimately in our best interest and potentially duped by others or our own illusions. Instead, what this transit favours are acts of service and charity to others. If you've wanted to give back through volunteer work, this is the time to do it. Doing so can leave us with feelings of having deeper meaning in our actions and that we're fulfilling a higher spiritual purpose.

Wednesday, May 18

Full Moon in Capricorn begins at 5:02 am PST

[Combined with Waning Gibbous Phase]

Sun Trine Pluto

Lean into what your true desires are with this aspect. What you really want in life, what motivates you from the depth of your passions, and how you intend to exert your willpower to achieve everything you want are highlighted now. Stepping into your power could feel easier now compared to the square between Sun and Pluto. If we can embrace the changes that inevitably come with Pluto transits, we have great potential to reach mountain peaks.

Thursday, May 19

Waning Gibbous in Capricorn begins at 2:41 am PST

Position & Power

[Combined with Full Moon Phase]

- Focus on building a strong position in your industry by refining what you want to master and excel at through experience over the next few years
- Make a tangible plan for creating authority in your business and position yourself as someone who brings value to your people
- Lean into the responsibility of being an authority and becoming a reliable source of knowledge and expertise in your industry
- Nurture your best leadership qualities by focusing on your strengths
- Full Moon: High energy and last push to complete tasks, outward efforts
- Waning Gibbous: Active energy being balanced and drawn inwards

If you're high energy/in a work mood: In Marketing and Business Capricorn rules your reputation, what you're known for, and in order to be known for something we need to stick with something long enough for people to associate us with it. Remember we can always change direction or change our mind. But first, it's important to start somewhere and start building it to the point that it can run on its own and get its own legs so that we can then move on to other things.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: If you need to slow down, this moon is a good reminder to pace your energy in order to accomplish your vision, without burning out or creating unrealistic expectations. Capricorn knows that anything worth doing is going to take a bit of time. The gift of this moon is to teach us how to steady our energy and flow so that we have the ability and capacity to keep moving forward, even when we're having trouble moving at all.

Social Media & Clients:

- Focus content creation on productivity in general, improving systems and becoming more 'efficient'.
- Discover how your clients and audience might be struggling with their own businesses, the goal is to see who you are most equipped to help
- Step into authority by showing others what you have achieved thus far and how you can help them with creating tangible results. Show your knowledge and share your expertise!
- Offer support to clients in a way where you can team up and brainstorm practical solutions to their problems rather than emotional commiserating.

Moon Boost:

Capricorn Pluto presents a crisis that we become conscious of and must purify from our business practices. We see the painful results of what hasn't worked thus far and can now alchemize that into a better working business.

Taurus North Node & Uranus

- Uranus asks us to innovate new ways of making money, with it in mind that the global economic landscape is constantly shifting and changing. Be adaptable and creative to ride the unpredictabilities of this long storm.
- North Node shows us that the way we build wealth now will have a deeper feeling than usual like we're being called to a higher purpose within our work. Let it be simple and let all the abundance flow your way.

Friday, May 20

Void Moon from 4:59 – 5:52 pm PST [Capricorn to Aquarius]

- Emerging out of intense productivity and solitude towards socialization
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Earth to Air = Introducing flow and balancing heavy with light energies

Waning Gibbous in Aquarius begins at 9:05 pm PST

The Meaning In Our Work

- Analyze if you're happy with the direction of your business

- Appeal to your community by connecting with them over a cause
- Humanitarian efforts bolster the sustainability of your business and more effectively weave you into the positive aspects of society
- Tap into the evolved vision of your business and create accountability for yourself if you haven't been living up to it your ideals
- Find where societal values line up with your own ambition to know where your greatest contribution can be made.
- Waning Gibbous: Active energy being balanced and drawn inwards

If you're high energy/in a work mood: There ARE more important things than simply building a mountain of wealth in your name. With the Moon in Aquarius, we are called to ask how we can use our influence and status to positively impact the world. Which humanitarian cause is the continuous reminder of why you do the work you do and how we can be a positive force in the world. Aquarius reminds us that the fortunes we amass are merely tools to do more of that work, rather than to get tunnel visioned by our own desires.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: If we experience frustration or exhaustion under this influence this is a good moon to sit back and simply ponder the broader perspective of our work. We don't necessarily need to take action right now but it might brighten our spirits to let ourselves daydream.

Social Media:

- Share your message and market any fresh content you recently created
- Share any innovative changes you've made to business or lifestyle
- Utilize current events and trends to help your content gain more exposure
- Show up in your community through a live stream or public event
- Let yourself communicate passionately about causes you care about

Moon Boosts:

Mercury in Gemini makes our communication might be lighter and wittier, giving us a playful edge to writing content and promoting our offers

Saturn in Aquarius brings stability and foundation to our communities, helping us grow a consistent income and connection with others who share our values.

Sun in Gemini (May 20 - June 22, 2022)

During this transit, we can feel flighty, desire to do multiple things at once, struggle to choose or focusing in on one particular thing at a time, and desire to learn and absorb all the things. This can be a great time for a life upgrade, to expand our ideas of what we think of ourselves, what we think is possible for us, and to revamp our social circle. Are you surrounded by supportive, interesting, and growth-oriented people? Networking, and making new connections are very supportive at this time, and in fact, feed an important part of your inner Gemini.

Saturday, May 21

Waning Gibbous in Aquarius - All Day

Sun Conjunct Mercury

This aspect is excellent for planning in business and communicating our plans with others in ways where everyone can benefit. Our solar energy (physical energy) is aligned with our mental energy (mercury) uniting our thinking with our physical energy and excitement. The energy is most strongly felt when we are engaged in negotiations and the rapid exchange of ideas. The teamwork vibe is potent now and if we have wanted to include new team members in our business, this is a great time to assess the value potential candidates bring to the table.

This is also a great time to take action on your thoughts and share them publically, sales, marketing, and projects get a great push forward with this transit.

Sunday, May 22

Void Moon from 12:18 am - 8:49 am PST [Aquarius to Pisces]

- A suspended space between the logical and artistic minds
- Good time for daydreaming the bigger picture of your life
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Air to Water = slowing down and feeling

Waning Gibbous in Pisces begins at 8:50 am PST

Last Quarter in Pisces begins at 11:42 am PST

[Included in Next Week's Mooncast]

Mercury Retrograde in Taurus (May 22 - June 3, 2022)

When Mercury moves back into Taurus during this cycle, we'll get a chance to see the financial structure of our business from the perspective of how many roles exist within it. Every person is a valuable resource that helps the day-to-day run smoothly and you may be revising how you go about creating more security for you and your team. Are there routines, systems or tools that would help make everyone's lives easier? This is a good time to explore what's needed, what's worth investing in, and how you can help bring ease to the infrastructure of your business. Expect there to be some delays and kinks throughout this process and honor the patience needed to navigate it all.

Each Mercury Rx gives us an opportunity to go back to the drawing board and make improvements, or re-direct our thinking. During Aquarius, we are being asked to think bigger and connect the dots between our work and our impact.

As with all Mercury Retrogrades, we are being offered a revisit/redo period, and Mercury is here to show us what needs to be re-done, re-visioned, and re-understood, and because it knows we're stubborn and like to put things off, it's going to make sure we pay attention by creating mass interruptions and disruptions to the things we need to fix or heal.

With any Mercury Retrograde through an earth sign, we will want to be aware that our focus will be on the tangible areas of our lives, especially with Taurus as it rules business, finances, creature comforts, food, our home environment, and our habits. This is the time to re-examine what's not working, and what we need to bring true happiness in our lives.

How to use this retrograde:

Mercury Rx is best used to evolve the way you approach your work and how you nurture your community under difficult conditions. How connected we are in our circles and whether we (and our people) feel real belonging in our business.

This Mercury Rx will specifically target social platforms like Amazon & Udemy.

Take note of the house(s) of your chart where this will be taking place to get a hint of what area(s) of life will be highlighted by this retrograde.

To Launch or Not To Launch?

Launching and Marketing through Mercury Rx is a touchy subject, with often varying results.

I've had very successful (although frustrating, and tech glitch-filled) launches through Mercury Rx as well as ones that will go down in history as the.worst.launch.ever.

What determines this is a few things, while the sign that Mercury Rx is going through plays a big part (you can't pay me enough to launch through Mercury Rx in Cancer), what often defines the success of a marketing or launch venture through Mercury Rx (outside of having a good product, clear copy, aligned pricing, etc) is what houses it's moving through.

In your chart, you have private and public houses, and there are also houses that clearly are business-oriented and others that are more personal.

When to 'sit the bench'?

If Mercury Rx is going through your 8th- 12th houses, you may want to sideline your launch until after Mercury goes direct. The reason for this is that whatever does go sideways, often becomes a public spectacle, and can in some cases ruin our reputation, or make us look clumsy, disorganized, or otherwise cross some communication signals with our community. Or we just may not be operating at our best,(I'm looking at you House 8 and House 12), and we may not be in a good mental space to be in the spotlight and running all the things. This also goes for Mercury Rx through your 4th house, we will just want to be couch potatoes and our home-life will be calling on a lot of attention, so it's best to not make it compete.

Some other things to consider are the sign that Mercury is Rx'ing through and the flavors and experiences that will bring.

Mercury Rx Through the Elements

Mercury Rx through Fire Signs (Aries, Leo, Sagittarius) tends to bring passion, fire, intense emotions, impulsiveness. This is especially the case with Mercury Rx through Aries which can bring aggression, frustration, barriers, and tech meltdowns. One of the worst hacks of my website was during Mercury Rx in Aries (ask me if I'd do that one again).

Mercury through Earth Signs (Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn) tends to bring structural and organizational issues. The physical elements of our businesses, finances, foundations, and the tools we use to make them all work together as well as our habits and patterns are challenged at this time. Not terrible for launching, but makes everything physically move SLOWER. If we are looking to get things done quickly, this isn't so much the case during this Rx, as our bodies will be slower, our minds will get stuck a lot on the HOW, and our systems and structures may take a hit especially if they are paired with tech.

Mercury through Air Signs (Gemini, Libra, Aquarius) tends to bring a lot of headiness, and chatter, with difficulties around focus, especially on external stuff (internally not so much, we've got a magnifying glass on that stuff). It also tends to bring some big tech faux pas, think of the things that connect other things, links, platforms, videos, emails not working, communication misunderstandings. Not terrible for launching, it will just be important to stay on topic, and keep tasks down to 20-minute increments, back up that tech and be willing to be flexible on your time frames, and pivot if necessary (if tech stops working). Also handy to have someone you can call on short notice to fix things that go wrong.

Mercury through Water Signs (Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces) tend to bring a lot of emotions to the surface, both in us and our clients. With Cancer, we (and they) take things VERY personally. I find during Mercury Rx in Cancer people are cranky, complaining and generally ungrateful, and because we're not feeling appreciated (total Cancer thing), we tend to take it more to heart and feel used, undervalued, and otherwise pissed off. We tend to see more refunds during this period and will find that people will have very unrealistic standards. Can you tell I'm not a fan of launching during Mercury Rx through Cancer? Mercury Rx through Scorpio is a period where we are more inclined to dive deep into our own issues, and uncover whatever is at work there, launches here tend to require us to not use the traditional launch formats (people see it as manipulative), and to instead focus on what matters, and addressing secrets, or taboos. Mercury Rx in Pisces tends to be flighty, spacey, and disconnected, we're processing a lot of trauma and past during this time. Your launch and marketing should be more intuitive and connected, offering a safe space for them.

Mercury Rx as a RE-builder -

Mercury rules commerce, communities, and connection.

My favorite usage for Mercury Rx is to give to my community and focus on community-building projects. Whenever we invest in our community and go back to things that have already been in motion, our investment becomes richer, and our community trusts us more. Want to build your list? Want a proper email funnel?

This is a great time to start doing that.

Get feedback and start filling in the gaps between where your clients are, and where they want to be with your content.

If you choose to launch during this time, make sure you cater it to the energy and needs of the retrograde, and that you are launching something that you've already had in motion (don't start new things during Rx)

Ongoing Transits

Mercury Retrograde in Gemini (May 10 - 22, 2022)

This is the second Mercury Rx through Gemini, the last occurrence was from May to June 2021. Think back to that period and the themes, challenges, and issues that were brought to your attention. While this RX is going through a different degree than the one last year, many of the issues will be similar, and this gives us a preview of what to expect.

Mercury Rx in Gemini will be focused on the collecting of information, knowledge, and learning new skills. This is a great time to spend diving into things you need to or want to learn to advance your business. We are like information sponges when Mercury moves through Gemini and while it's retrograde we can go much deeper with the information and knowledge.

Each Mercury Rx gives us an opportunity to go back to the drawing board and make improvements, or re-direct our thinking. During Gemini, we are being asked to revisit what we know, and what we don't, and how we can fill in the gaps.

This is a great time to focus on content that teaches and gives your community information, and a process.

As with all Mercury Retrogrades, we are being offered a re-visit/re-do period, and Mercury is here to show us what needs to be re-done, re-visioned, and re-understood, and because it knows we're stubborn and like to put things off, it's going to make sure we pay attention by creating mass interruptions and disruptions to the things we need to fix or heal.

With any Mercury Retrograde through an air sign, we will want to be aware that our thinking will feel disconnected, scattered, and unfocused. This is not an ideal time to be making major decisions or working on tasks or projects that require a significant amount of focus but rather to take some time to process, allow and work with what is shifting. If work is needed right now try to work on more 'behind the scenes' stuff and take plenty of breaks.

How to use this retrograde:

This retrograde will be occurring in the sign of Gemini (Air) which will be encouraging us to evolve our content to meet the needs of this new period we're entering. Mercury Rx is best used to evolve the way you approach your work and how you nurture your community under difficult conditions. How connected we are in our circles and whether we (and our people) feel real belonging in our business.

Take note of the house(s) of your chart where this will be taking place to get a hint of what area(s) of life will be highlighted by this retrograde.

Jupiter in Aries (May 10 - July 22, 2022)

This is THE transit for entrepreneurs, leaders and anyone wanting to make big, bold moves in business. Right off the rip, this transit delivers a punch, like hitting nitro on a race car so make sure you're wearing your seatbelt! Whatever it is you're wanting to achieve over this next year, you'll get a chance to do it in a way that will put your name out there in a huge way. Fortune favours the bold so risk-taking is positively supported right now and it could serve you well on the professional front.

The last time that Jupiter was in Aries was in 2010, so it's only natural if you find yourself thinking back to that time and what you were learning to initiate in your life back then. What ball were you desperately trying to get moving and what have you learned since then? Similar lessons might present themselves to you, along with all new opportunities to succeed. At times it could feel like somewhat of a roller coaster and when Jupiter turns retrograde, we'll have some reflecting to do about our leadership qualities and deeper motivations in our work. Overall though, the jet fuel that is this transit will bring a world of joy and excitement to your projects. You might find you wake up in the morning feeling a renewed sense of purpose and a powerful drive to get things done - perhaps things you didn't have the courage to pursue before.

Venus in Aries (May 2 - 28, 2022)

This transit calls us into ourselves, it asks us to put ourselves first, to meet our own needs, and to be willing to give ourselves what we can't seem to access or receive anywhere else. It is a potent reminder of the power of self-love and self-care, and how without filling our own cup first we cannot expect to be able to fill anyone else. Use this period to explore what you like, what you need and want, and what brings you pleasure and joy. This can show up sexually, sensually, financially, emotionally, and through self-care and self-talk.

Pluto Retrograde in Capricorn (April 29 - October 8, 2022)

Pluto rules our shadow side, deep-seated fears, limiting beliefs, the unconscious, unpredictability, change, endings, and beginnings. Embrace cleaning house both physically and emotionally. Clearing your space, addressing things in your personal relationships and life that doesn't feel good to you anymore.

Embrace the change that occurs in your life during this period, it may not be easy but it will bring a level of depth and truth that was needed. Space is being made for new people, new opportunities, new perspectives, new boundaries, and greater fulfillment. Don't hold on to anything that wants to leave.

Pluto tends to enact change in our lives whether we like it or not, but it always is for our highest good. Subconscious belief systems can easily be triggered during this time. To find out what area of your life is being influenced by this retrograde look at the current transits in your chart and see what houses Pluto will be moving through.

This is a good time to meet any financial, health, and foundational fears you have in your life or business, and notice what is no longer working for you. The more we attempt to hold on tightly to things that are clearly changing, the more we may find this period to be a struggle.

Look to new ways to bring in resources that can be more developed once Pluto goes direct in October. Through endings and transformation come new beginnings, and new perspectives.

I would expect the US to see some major restructuring, political upheaval or shifts, and changes to its health care, financial, and currencies during this time. We may see a new currency emerge as a result of this restructuring, as well as changes in its relationships with other countries as a result, to be seen more fully after October 8th.

Sun in Taurus (April 19 - May 20, 2022)

When the Sun moves through Taurus our focus is on living more fully in the lives we have, about taking what we currently have in our lives and growing it, making it better, increasing our comforts and security. It is about moving from surviving to thriving, about building a strong, long-term foundation where we can not only see things grow but also enjoy ourselves and really live a good quality of life. Here our focus is on physical things, finances, structures, systems, and strategy. How are we going about what we're setting out to do? Is it grounded? Is it sustainable? Does it bring us joy?

This is a period of work, but it comes with the reminder that you're writing this story, you're setting the stage and you can create the rhythm by which you work and how you do things. That's a big part of the fun for Taurus, so let yourself get creative with the pieces that you can during this period, play with them, move things around, try things in a new way and see what feels right. Much here will be decided by the gut test - how does this feel for me? Let yourself experience, and then make up your mind.

Mars in Pisces (April 14 - May 24, 2022)

The best use of this transit is to use it to make improvements to your own subconscious, and to work solo. We can feel more irritable, distracted, and lost in emotions, the past and coping mechanisms during this transit. How you direct your energy at this time will really matter, especially since it will likely feel lower than usual and you may be worried about where your motivation has gone. While it won't feel as active or exhilarating as usual, that doesn't mean you don't have any energy, it just means you have to be very calculating about how you use that energy, and where you direct it.

The external world will more than likely drive us to feel erratic and lost at this time, so now is the time to turn within, and work at a slow, methodical pace on projects already initiated in the Sagittarius, Capricorn and Aquarius Cycles. Don't let yourself be swept away by doubt or other people's stuff, now is the time to slowly build what you have been working towards, and focus instead on slow consistent progress in that area, then jumping into something else, or spending too much mental space in doubt and fear.

This can trigger our fight or flight responses, especially since we may be feeling more of our own skeletons come out at this time, it's important as you step into the ring on bringing your goals into the light and fruition, that rather than believing the fears that come up as a result that you use this energy to question them, and dismantle them piece by piece.

If you don't buy the horse and pony show your mind is putting on at this time and instead use it to address these skeletons with compassion, and deep inquiry while leaning into your intuition, you will find that this can be a deeply healing period for you that removes some of the blocks, fears and triggers that have held you back from achieving your goals in the past.

Venus in Pisces (April 5 - May 2, 2022)

Venus represents love and money. When it enters Pisces we are invited into a dreamy, almost unreal world, where anything is possible (or we wish it could be). There can be a desire to see things as we wish to see them during this period rather than as they are. From a financial perspective, this can be very beneficial as it encourages us to use our intuition and our spiritual side to cultivate income and growth.

From a relationship perspective, there is a dreaminess to our love. If we are single we are craving the perfect, flawless partner, or not able to as easily see the flaws, in another. There can be a desire for the story or the fact that a person presents themselves rather than on the more practical, human, and flawed side. For those already in a relationship, there is a desire to stir up romance, connect more deeply, share time together, and create something powerful.

Uranus Direct (10° - 18°) (January 18 - August 24, 2022)

10° - 18° Taurus

Uranus will remain direct in Taurus from now until August 24th, 2022.

When Uranus moves from retrograde to direct, we are being gifted the opportunity to act on those big, bold ideas and innovations that we've been marinating in.

This is a time to regain our bearings. Uranus has been retrograde since August 19, 2021, and has been not so politely nudging us to pay attention to our finances, how we go about earning, spending, and saving our moolah, so that we can create a more stable financial future for ourselves, especially during a time on the planet where there is a great deal of change.

It is asking us to not get distracted by the surface changes, to the algorithms on social media, or the next new platform feature, but rather how do we create consistency, security, comfort, and long-termness within of financial and governmental structures no longer offer us the sense of safety that they once did. Uranus brings with it innovation, a rebelliousness that isn't interested in doing things 'the old way'. It doesn't like externally or socially imposed structures, it is here to help you form your own, oddly enough in the comfort-seeking nature of Taurus.

Taurus loves its food, its home, its friends, and keeping things kosher, and when it's met with change-agent Uranus, this area of our life is bound to see the most dramatic upgrades (which may feel like mini earthquakes)

What areas of your business have shifted over the past 6 months - a year?

Have you had financial sources dry up, or change?

Have you been compelled to create a new income source for yourself?

How can you create consistency during a time when there is so much inconsistency in our lives and society?

Uranus will remain in Taurus until July 2025. The last time that Uranus was in Taurus was post WW2, where new systems were created to ensure the welfare and balance for all, things like social welfare and standard work weeks. Necessary and important to the financial stability for both the family, community, and country's welfare.

As Uranus embarks upon its 5-year journey through Taurus what we can be sure of is that by 2025 the way you have looked at, used, and generated money, financial security, government, law, and growth will not look the same.

Jupiter in Pisces (Direct Post Rx Shadow)

JUPITER IN PISCES MAY 13, 2021 - JULY 19, 2021,

DECEMBER 28, 2021 - MAY 25, 2022

POST RX SHADOW ENDS JANUARY 8, 2022.

Our return to Jupiter in Pisces after the retrograde period will bring us the chance to also return to our deepest belief systems inside about what we're capable of. About how much faith we're willing to give in the universe to deliver everything we desire - as long as we are aligned with those outcomes.

Jupiter is the planet of growth, prosperity, and spirituality feels comfortable in Pisces where the universe's energy can be expressed fully. The influence of this transit is powerful in that it is gifting us with the highest level of knowing spirituality that the human mind can understand. Major downloads are available for us to truly feel the enormity of the universe and the minimality of our existence. It reminds us that everything we're living is connected to the same web of energy that unites us all and that this understanding elevates our ability to play in the material world.

The most powerful application of this energy can be felt when we utilize this knowledge to align with a state of inner fulfillment and happiness. When we let go of the attachment to people and things, we evolve our ability to manifest experiences because instead of grasping tightly for success, we lean into it as something that exists just the same as you yourself do. The money we want to make, the community we want to build, the meaning we give to our work all can be distilled to the same cosmic particles that make up our world. When we have a deep awareness of this connection we have to all things, our business has more chances to blossom. We release unnecessary, painful attachments to our success as some pie in the sky and instead step into living it on a personal level each and every day.

North Node in Taurus (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)
South Node in Scorpio (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)

North Node in Taurus

The North Node transit shows us what we are moving towards, and the global trends that we should expect over the next 18-month cycle.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the North Node moved through Gemini and the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving towards new careers, education, educational formats (homeschooling/online learning/distance learning), as well as working and staying within our more immediate environments with an emphasis on very short distance travel, this saw a massive decrease in commute times through lockdowns and business restructuring.

This presented the ability for many to telecommute, explore grocery delivery and overnight delivery, work from home, telemedicine, and traveling within our more immediate neighborhoods.

In terms of business, this showed up as an explosion of technologies like video conferencing through Zoom, and the transition of businesses that were primarily in person into the online space. We also saw a massive explosion in online learning, new careers, online training, and many stepping into the updating of their businesses into a more online space. The development of new skills, especially highly specific training saw massive growth.

Now with the North Node moving into Taurus, we will see a continuation of much of our lives, whether through work, friendships, and domestic lives growing from right from the comfort of our own homes. Whether it's the continuation of online education, reskilling ourselves, exploring homegrown food, home-based health, and creating rhythms and routines around our more immediate environment.

The return to commuting or long-distance travel or education will continue to remain slow, if not completely and forever changed.

We will look to create more of our luxuries from home, whether it be foods we enjoy, health care, gardens, learning and education, and growing our businesses.

The emphasis will be on creating quality life experiences, which may have many exploring new ways of living, relocating, or new ways of creating sustainability in their lives that they felt they didn't have time (or motivation) to before. We will also see an increase in new currencies especially as the North Node conjuncts Uranus on July 26, 2022.

These trends will continue into 2023, lasting approximately 18 months.

From a business perspective, this is a perfect time to either launch your business into the online space (and home space), and to also explore new training, and slowly build out more security for yourself. If you teach business in any regard, the next 18 months will see massive growth in your industry. This can also be a good time to explore alternative income streams, currencies and creating a side business.

The North Node shows the potential for increase/advancement and opportunities for the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

What to watch for during this transit:

Personal Assets/Personal Income/Cash in hand - Cash and tangible resources will become more important

Banks/Banking (trends or changes in interest rates, mortgage rates, loans)

Currency (changes to - shifts in currency, new currency, re-valuation of old currencies, gold, silver, gems, land, and other tangible assets)

A movement into trading, stocks, currencies, securities

Budgeting (more people will be watching their finances and likely stepping into budgeting if they haven't before)

Commerce and New Business -especially online, or from home

Focus on Skills that Earn Money/Earning Capacity

Government Finances/Currency/Shifts in Employment

Trends/Treasury/Country Reserves and Natural Resources (value)

Property/Mortgages/Purchasing of Land/Homes

Real Estate

New Hobbies that can be done from home

Increase in Taxes & Costs of Food/Resources

Issues of Health Care Systems /Access

Health Issues specifically targeting the Head/Base of Skull/Neck/Glands/Diabetes/Fertility/Illnesses in Children and Grandchildren

Home Based Entertainment (both digital and hands-on)

Food Security/Agriculture/Self-Sustainability

Health Food/Vitamins/Herbs/Supplements/New Diets/Home Health Care

Home Education and an increase in new educational methods (Reggio Emilia, Waldorf, STEAM/STEM, Montessori) for younger children and for older children, teens, young adults, we will see an increase in more young people creating their own education and future employment from home, or through alternative means.

South Node in Scorpio

The South Node shows us what we're coming away from as a collective on a global level, and rules 18-month trends.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving away from long-distance travel, higher education, retreats, and trips geared to personal development, and for many even a change in their belief systems, traditions (family/religious), and long-term goals.

We saw a massive increase in the consumption of media (Gemini), learning new information and an attempt to determine truth from fiction, while also attempting to form our own opinions for ourselves.

The South Node's transit through Sagittarius saw a complete change in the airline and travel industry, a coming away from global travel, and more to towards local travel, with many of us stuck in our homes or limited to our local areas for staycations.

This also saw a massive increase in learning from home, and a step away from long-distance or higher education, and a shift into choosing your own education for yourself, through the use of online or distance materials.

Now that the South Node is moving into Scorpio, we will see a disillusionment with any forms of manipulation and gas-lighting whether through media, friendships, authority, or governmental figures.

We may also find ourselves questioning previous healing methods, and possibly even avoidance of navigating our own trauma when things become too much.

It will feel more important than ever to step away from what we can't control and into navigating our own spaces and choosing what we allow into them (any negativity may send us into a downward spiral).

We must be cautious of seeking quick fixes at this time, and avoidance doing the deeper work on our health, mindset, psychology, beliefs, and fears.

This is not necessarily the best time for the healing and metaphysical industries, as they will see more people turning away from doing deeper work, even though it is obviously needed, on the other hand, we may see a rise in more manipulative and unethical techniques either through media, competitors in our industry, government authorities, and previously trusted sources.

It will be more imperative than ever to lean into your own intuition to determine what's true for you.

The South Node either obscures, ends, or creates obstacles to the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

Things to monitor during this transit:

Changes to Relationships/Divorce/Morality Rates

Debt/Credit

Death/Endings

Taboo Subjects

Joint Finances

Lawsuits

The Withholding/Gaslighting of Medical Advancements/Truth/Scientific Discovery

The hiding of facts/figures/numbers/data/results

Chiron Direct (December 19, 2021 - July 19, 2022)

Chiron has been in Aries since 2019 and will continue to move through the remainder of Aries energy between now and 2027 with a few retrogrades in between to help us be reminded that healing our wounds comes in layers. We are never really 'over something' but we can find new facets of ourselves and our own medicine with each revisit. Chiron reminds us of our tenacity, our ability to heal ourselves, and to share that medicine with others, to transform otherwise difficult experiences through alchemy. When Chiron is in Aries it is a time of action, to walk our talk and to enact real change in regards to our wounds. It is a time where we may impulsively react due to our wounds, so we will need to take a pause before jumping in fully but it can also be a very powerful period to bring the wounds to the light. If there is something that you have experienced that you don't want someone else to go through this is a time to bring that cause to light. With Aries we're not messing around, we need to mobilize our healing, we need to create movements around it. It's a time to allow our anger and fury to become channelled into positive change in our world. To use our words and actions in an empowering way, to become the light. It is a period where we will no longer be silenced, and where we will allow our wounds to help us to become who we are meant to be.

Neptune Direct in Pisces (December 1, 2021 - March 21, 2022)

Dreamwalker

Neptune is making its way through Pisces where it will remain until 2027. This Journey it is taking is quite extraordinary and only happens every 165 years. Neptune in Pisces is here to connect us not only to our intuition but to our subconscious and to all of life on the planet. Neptune is the ruler of the seas (all water on earth) and Pisces is the fish that lives in them. Like a fish we don't notice our environment we aren't aware we're 'IN water' and yet without it, we would not be. All living beings on Earth need water and are made up of water to some extent. We are 70%+ water, and this transit is here to wake us up to who and what we are and the damage that is being done to the world around us. To help us question what is real (as Neptune also rules illusion and delusion) and the ways we have been lying to ourselves or believing the lies of the 'mainstream'.

We have in many ways disconnected ourselves from all of life ignoring the way we are damaging the planet and how each choice we make every day has an impact because we feel sad and depressed at the state of the world, its problems feel too big to solve. But when it comes to Neptune in Pisces the solution comes from within, to acknowledge our internal environment and discern the true from the false within us. To ask ourselves deeper questions and to receive the answers from within us. TO remind us that WE are a part of this source, just like all drops of water are a part of the bigger ocean, we are not separate. Often when life and the state of the world become overwhelming we try to distract ourselves by focusing on things that cannot nourish us, that cannot fulfill the deep hunger and longing we have inside of us for meaning and healing, but with this transit we are being called within, to find our own nourishment and sustenance from within (rather than from outside of us which is contributing to the damage and harm we are seeing in our planet and world on all levels).

This is a time to cultivate your intuition, to listen to your dreams, and to work with yourself to dive deeper into understanding the mechanism and patterns you are repeating (Pisces is also the natural ruler of the 12th house, which is where we hide things from ourselves, and where our subconscious and trauma reside). The way to heal the planet is by more of us working with this unknown and often scary part of ourselves and bringing awareness and healing to it. This will create a ripple effect that has the power to change and heal the world to a magnitude that we cannot yet comprehend. If you are feeling drawn to lean into your own intuition to use it in your work, to use it to work with clients, this is your nudge. The veil between you and source (your intuition) has never been thinner than it is right now.

Saturn Direct in Aquarius (May 23 - Oct 10, 2021)

06° Aquarius 53'

SATURN DIRECT - POST RX SHADOW ENDS JANUARY 15, 2022 AT 13 AQU 31'

As Saturn returns to its forward movement in the sky, our minds are more or less done reviewing information and now we're much more focused on how we can properly apply the lessons we're learning. Without testing our ability to stay consistent and disciplined in how we're showing up in your community, we don't truly know our mettle. Embrace this retrograde transit and its shadow period as a training ground for the mind, where you learn to think with more complexity and gain access to the profound innovative downloads that come with the Aquarian, future thinking mind.

SATURN IN AQUARIUS

This transit will last for the next 2+ years. During this time we will see a surge in the sale and marketing of information, a disassembly of old traditional ways of education, marketing, and media, and an increase in innovation, discovery, and new technology. We will also see an increased interest in Astrology, Psychology, and other consciousness-expanding tools, techniques, practices, and systems. This will be a period of great change. With this transit, there will be a shift from personal interests and wants to what is best for the planet, humanity, and the collective. We will see an even greater impact from our personal choices on the whole of the planet and all species. This will highlight the need for greater personal responsibility and initiating further change in regards to the environment, waste, public health, social supports, technology, and the rules governing it and the impact of the 'economy' on global, personal, and environmental health.

2020-2023 Saturn Return for those born between

February 1932 - February 1935

January 1962 - December 1964

February 6, 1991 – January 8, 1994

Saturn returns to each sign once every 29 or 30 years for approximately 3 years. Saturn was last in Aquarius from 2/1932 to 2/1935, 1/1962 to 12/1964, and from 2/1991 to 1/1994. Saturn will again be in Aquarius from December 17, 2020 (after a brief stay there from March 21 to July 1, 2020) through March 7, 2023.

Saturn Returns are periods of great change, challenges, and adversity where we will feel the pressure to become more of our own person.

Pluto Direct in Capricorn (October 6 - January 27, 2021)

Pluto will remain in Capricorn until 2024, over the next 3 years we will see significant changes and transformations in all the areas that Capricorn rules such as governments, rules, foundations, regulations, currencies, economies, resources, money and legacies. This will not be a simple rebuilding or redesigning, the change will come through power struggles, the use of fear for control, uncovering the deep subconscious, and a willingness to surrender or risk great loss for a sense of purpose and meaning.

Pluto is here to help us transform ourselves, to find our purpose, and to remind us that freedom should never be taken for granted. We may find great conspiracies, abuses of power, and a need to stand up for rights (as rules and laws can be used as coercive measures by those wishing to gain more power and control). This is a time where we are reminded of what's important to us, and that we cannot remain complacent for the things that are of real value. Use these next 3 years to stand strong for what's important to you and to deeply inquire what you are willing to give up, sacrifice or surrender to live a life of real meaning and significance.
