

Friday, 24 April

Dear ISH Families,

Please see below for helpful information about the week ahead:

New or Updated Information

- Important Update... ISH Learning Plan for May 2020 - This week, the ISH Board confirmed the learning plan for the remainder of the school year. Please review this linked message providing both clarity and rationale for this decision.
- ISH Community Chat with Ms. Naglee - On Monday, 27 April at 3pm, Ms. Naglee and members of the leadership team will host a Community Chat to provide virtual face-to-face connection to answer questions about the end of the school year and plans for 20-21. All interested parents are invited to join this conversation to listen and/or participate. To join, please open a Zoom account and join Ms. Naglee's Personal Zoom Link ID: 499-819-2946. The password for joining this meeting is 123.
- Parent Support Resources - Our regional international school organization CEESA is proud to be partnering with Dr. Fran Prolman to present a free regional webinar focused on helping parents and their children not only survive, but thrive, while staying at home and supporting their children through Distance Learning in the midst of a global pandemic. Several free online sessions are offered within the next couple of weeks. The registration due date is Tuesday, 28 April at noon (CET). Please refer to these links to learn more about Dr. Prolman and to learn how to register. On the day of the event, registered participants will receive a Zoom link for the webinar.
