

HOSA

Club Website	HOSA Website
Interested?	Fill out the following Google Form
Advisor/Coach	Ms. Aleid van der Zel vandale@ug.k12.wi.us Nurse Trish Commodore commtri@ug.k12.wi.us
Description of Activity	HOSA Future Health Professionals is an organization for students who are interested in pursuing a career in the medical field. The mission of HOSA is to empower HOSA-Future Health Professionals to become leaders in the global health community through education, collaboration, and experience.
Start Date	September
Season/Length of Activity	All year
Membership Qualifications	Interest in healthcare and good academic standing (note that you do NOT have to be part of the PLTW Biomedical Sciences program to join). Anyone is welcome!
Time Commitment	Minimally monthly meetings Additionally (if participating/qualify): • Competition preparation • Conferences (Leadership, Regionals, State, Internationals)
Monetary Commitment	$25 membership dues Competition fees (2025 pricing, if participating/qualify): • Fall Leadership conference $30 • Regional competition $15 • State conference $85 + lodging • International conference $135 + lodging/travel

Main Events/ Activities Significant Functions	Monthly meetings to learn about and discuss various health care topics. Preparation for competitive events: Regional competition (January) State conference (April) International conference (June)
Notes	WI State HOSA website: https://www.wihosa.org/