

Eric Hortop is a proud MA statistician at Statistics Canada whose union involvement goes back to 2008. He has been a PIPSC steward for ten years, involved in national union-management meetings much of that time and has served as RE Group treasurer since 2020. He was a member of the RE bargaining team that got members gender-inclusive language, domestic violence leave and a solid pay increase last round and is working for members this round at the Central Table. He has represented PIPSC at the CLC Human Rights conference and its Solidarity and Pride committee and the CLC Convention in 2021, and is an active Positive Space ambassador at Statistics Canada. He is a father of three school-aged kids and lives in Gatineau.
