TLDR; Ripped off my AU Croissant design and used it for a N*zi character (later edited it to cover their tracks), refused to apologize for their actions and instead tried to guilt trip me, constantly checked if I unblocked them (I stupidly did) and then tried to contact me again, followed me on Tumblr through my Linktree despite me blocking them on DA, block evaded me with an alt (deactivated now) and constantly checked on me with that alt, blocked their alt and they proceeded to insult me when before they tried to guilt trip me saying they just wanted to be friends/to make friends and used anxiety as an excuse.
