

Danny Pinter - OG - Ball State

NC State (2019) Notre Dame (2018)

Background Info

Raised in South Bend, Indiana. Two-star recruit according to 247Sports. Earned his degree in Business Administration and is pursuing his MBA. Academic standout. Redshirt. Started 5 of 12 games played as a freshman played TE. Started 6 of 7 games played before suffering a season-ending injury as a sophomore played TE. Started all 12 games as a junior at OT. Started all 12 games as a senior at OT. Played basketball in high school. Two siblings. Wants a football front office or coaching job when his football playing career is over. Enjoys the outdoors and has considered working for the National Park Service. Moved to OT and gained 50 pounds. Too often flirted with the teams 265-pound weight limit for the TE position and the team thought it would be a better fit.

Injury Info

Suffered ligament damage in his right foot which required surgery (2017).

Character Info

Team Leadership Council (2019. 2018). Coaches note a strong work ethic and character. Organized team dinners to build team camaraderie and participated in many local charities.