

OH SHIT, A COMMISSION SHEET

Almost everything I do is improv, though if you've a script I'm game. Same price either way. Payment is upfront, on CashApp (DM for my handle) or Fansly and no, there's no refunds. If you're not happy with a recording, I will re-record you something else precisely once at no additional charge.

Once you've paid for your commission, I'll get it to you via a google share link so you can listen anywhere, on any device. Recordings typically take place 48-72 hours after I've been commissioned. You get your link the moment it's uploaded. Sometimes Real Life gets in the way. If you're curious about the status of your commission, please feel free to contact me!
