

Math in Action

Home to School Connection Resource

Keep it Up

Math Activities at Home

Keep reading - Stories with number use Nursery rhymes
Songs with number use

Keep Playing - Look for games where you can link written numbers to a visual number set

Games with counting, or comparing

Card Games: go fish, memory, war

Board Games: Chutes and Ladders, Checkers, Chess, Monopoly, Life

Imaginative Play: Setting Tea Party - counting plates, counting food, sorting and comparing amounts

Other Imaginative Play

Keep Working - Household Chores: setting the table- use this opportunity to count number of settings adding and subtracting

Talk about seasons, months of the years, days of the Week, morning/day/night, and time by the hour, & $\frac{1}{2}$ hour

Chore Chart and Allowance - to begin working with money with complete units (ie nickels, dimes, quarters, or dollars)

Please add your ideas: