

Tasty Tours Toronto – experience your city with an epic food tour

Toronto's best food tour, Tasty Tours guides you to city's best culinary spots

Food tours offer a fun and delicious way to explore and learn about a city, whether you're travelling abroad or looking for an exciting adventure in your own city.

Enter Tasty Tours Toronto – an award-winning food tour company that has been sharing the city's culinary gems and culture for 15 years with thousands of positive reviews.

Founded in 2011, Tasty Tours is Toronto's original and #1 rated food tour company that celebrates the city through their one-of-a-kind food experiences.

Led by personable and passionate guides, each tour includes a walk around a neighbourhood with curated stops at various eateries (with skip the line access!) where guests are treated to a variety of dishes while learning interesting tidbits about the people and stories behind the food.

Thoughtfully designed for locals and tourists looking to immerse themselves in one of the world's hottest food destinations, these guided food tours are a must-do activity for those looking to discover locally-approved culinary spots while creating lasting memories.

"Toronto is a vibrant city with a rich, diverse food scene - there's always something delicious to discover. Tasty Tours' engaging and educational guided tours provide an opportunity to explore the city's impressive food scene, culture and history," said Audrey Ooi, founder of Tasty Tours Toronto.

Everyone always leaves our tours with a full belly, a smile on their face and lots of interesting stories to share," added Ooi.

Here are some food tours they offer:

Kensington Market "Taste The World" Food Tour

Available every day (other than Tuesdays) at 11am; $89 per person, free for kids under seven

This five-star rated guided tour features stops at a variety of multicultural street food spots, from handmade Tibetan dumplings to flaky Jamaican patties. Plus you'll discover fascinating insights behind the history of the neighbourhood, people, shops and food. Tasty Tours takes you past the tourist traps to the best family-run shops and hidden counters most visitors walk right past. Guests are encouraged to come hungry.

Must-Do Toronto Food Tour

Available Fridays and Sundays at 11:30am; $89 per person, free for kids under seven

The only food tour of downtown Toronto! No other tour in Toronto offers such a unique blend of food and sights. This two and half hour immersive experience combines visits to iconic tourist sights and attractions with stops at hidden food spots and popular eateries where guests will savour internationally inspired bites. You'll leave understanding why the city's food scene is truly extraordinary.

Soccer & Spice Food Tour

Running until July 19, Saturdays and Sundays at 2.30 p.m.; $99 per person, free for kids under seven

On this limited-time tour, taste and savour how popular soccer nations cheer, celebrate and fuel that game-day energy. Taking place in Kensington Market, tour takers will experience the buzz of the vibrant multicultural neighbourhood as they move from shop to shop, with each bite transporting them to another stadium, team, and dish. With hand-picked stops at the best local eateries, skip the line access and insider stories, guests will get to travel the soccer world through their tastebuds, wander one of Toronto's most unique districts, and discover fun international tidbits about the beautiful game.

The Grand Chocolate Flight

Private tours only, date/time flexible; $799 for groups of two; $899 for groups of three

Taste the city from a whole new perspective! Designed for adventure seekers with a sweet tooth, this one-of-a-kind experience combines a private chocolate tasting and helicopter flight around Toronto. The two-hour experience, suited for two to three people, is the perfect way to celebrate birthdays, date night, anniversaries, or simply a passion for the extraordinary. To kick off the experience a chocolate expert leads guests through an educational and delicious journey of exquisite local craft chocolates while serving up bubbly, as they teach the art of pairing chocolate with wine. Following the tasting, clients enjoy a 15km flight above Toronto to take in breathtaking views of the city skyline. Tour-takers also get to bring home their bottle of wine, a Tasty Tours chocolate tasting kit, a digital photo keepsake and memories to savour forever.

Website: tastytourstoronto.com

Instagram: @TastyToursToronto

Facebook: @tastytourstoronto