

Our Commitment to Ethical Fundraising & Donor Bill of Rights:

At Foster Kids Matter, we believe donors deserve clarity, honesty, and respect. Every gift—large or small—is treated with care and used to support children in crisis.

How We Steward Your Gift:

- We honor your intentions and use your gift exactly as designated.
- We communicate openly about our programs, needs, and impact.
- We acknowledge donations promptly and provide proper documentation.
- We welcome questions about how your contribution is used.

Your Privacy Matters:

- We never sell or share donor information.
- You may give anonymously at any time.
- Your information is protected and accessed only by authorized staff.

Our Ethical Standards: We follow the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) Code of Ethical Standards and uphold the Donor Bill of Rights. This means we commit to:

- Honest, transparent communication
- Respectful and non-coercive fundraising practices
- Responsible use of all contributions
- Protecting your personal information
- Ensuring fundraising aligns with our mission and trauma-informed values

Donor Bill of Rights: We proudly uphold the Donor Bill of Rights, which affirms your right to:

- Know how your gift will be used
- Receive accurate financial information
- Be treated with dignity and respect
- Have your privacy protected
- Ask questions and receive timely, truthful answers

Thank You for Making a Difference.

Your generosity directly impacts children and families navigating some of the hardest moments of their lives. We are deeply grateful for your trust and partnership.
