

Analyze Distractor Types

Instructions: Look at the pictures and descriptions. Which is the correct answer? Why? Categorize each of the three distractors using the following number system:

- 1) Similar Sounding Words or Phrases
- 2) Words Used in Wrong Context
- 3) Problems with Prepositions
- 4) Inaccurate Description of Actions or Things
- 5) I'm Not Sure!

Write the corresponding number in the yellow box. If a distractor has some correct information and some incorrect information, clarify what is correct and what is incorrect with your partners.

Picture	Description	#
11	A) The school teacher is teaching math.
	B) The technician is wiring a circuit board.
	C) The designer is drawing a diagram.
	D) The accountant is explaining a chart.

Picture	Description	#
12 	A) The workers can talk across their cubicles.
	B) Each office has a closed door.
	C) The ice cubes are in the glass.
	D) The disks are too large.

Picture	Description	#
13 	A) The records include the trio's best music.
	B) The three architects are reviewing the plans.
	C) The contractor is supervising his carpenters.
	D) The papers are being filed.

Picture	Description	#
14 	A) The meeting has been postponed.
	B) The coffee machine is on the table.
	C) The boards are being cut and painted.
	D) The board members are discussing a proposal.	