

You can do anything you put your mind to as long as you try your best, and things you do is what make people remember you. President Abraham Lincoln help free the slaves, modernize the economy, and won a war. His name will go on for the things he has done which will be remembered by the Lincoln memorial in Washington DC.