DXY - DOLLAR INDEX

The dollar bounced with remarkable precision off the multi-decade trendline; it is a crowded consensus short; bullish divergence on weekly and daily time frames; it might be going lower in the long term but not before a decent bounce to shake out the new shorts that have piled on as of late; long

TSLA - TESLA

Tesla having a bad run with Musk incessantly in the headlines for all the wrong reasons; would be a buyer at $214.38 horizontal support and an extremely aggressive buyer at ~$175 rising long term parallel base

HOOD - ROBINHOOD

The retail favorite failed to be included in the S&P 500; still short from 7/2/25; will begin to cover at the first gap fill at $83.03; two more below that as well

RCL - ROYAL CARIBBEAN CRUISE

Tagged a long term trend line; gap fill well below; short
