My Goals Achieved

- Becoming a rainmaker:

After pushing forward at every front... Sacrificing 10x more than everyone else was willing to sacrifice, improving my skills, achieving one of the first steps in my grand journey, and making one of my clients over $10,000 in revenue— I feel relieved. I feel proud. I feel life and energy flowing through my veins. FIRE BLOOD 🔥. God is running through me...The energy of my ANCESTORS is powering me to achieve even more!!!!

As I'm writing my application for the Rainmaker role, I know with absolute certainty that this is not the end goal. This is not the end at all, but rather, this is just the beginning. I want more. I will conquer it all, I will squeeze everything that this life has in store for me. I am in control of my destiny, powered by god and my ancestors. You can't stop me. $10,000 was only my first step. Fear not! Because my potential is limitless. And so am I. I WILL conquer it ALL! MOVE FORWARD, AND WIN! LOSING IS NOT AN OPTION! ANTIFRAGILE!!

- Making $3,000 in a single month.

That's more money than most adults make. More money than all of the people in my class make combined.

I am 17. Put that into perspective... I have more power than 99% of those around me. I'm a striking force. Again, I am powered by fire blood. Again I prove to myself that I am the fucking man. I prove that I'm a warrior, a machine, a descendant of great ancestors and blessed by god. I have unlimited potential, and I'm coming for it all. I WILL CONQUER ALL OF IT! $3,000 is just the beginning... Chump change. The future is bright. My destiny will come. This is just a testament that I'm doing the right things. Whatever problem, whatever fear, whatever unknown that wants to shut me down has no chance against me. I am too powerful, too strong, too hard to KILL! My mind works at one with my body. In perfect synergy. The ONLY WAY IS UP. 5k, 10k, 20k, 100k, it's all right around the corner. Immortality, take it, it's yours!

$5,000 in a single month has come earlier than I thought. But of course it came as planned. I knew I was going to make it. I knew I was on the right path. It was all calculated. I AM A G. MOMENTUM, MOMENTUM, blessed by god. $5000 is only the start, but it's still chump change compared to my potential. I WANT MORE. I will get more and I will become the BIGGEST FUCKING MAN TRW has ever produced!!! My country has ever seen, my family has ever talked to, and women have ever met.

My Rewards Earned

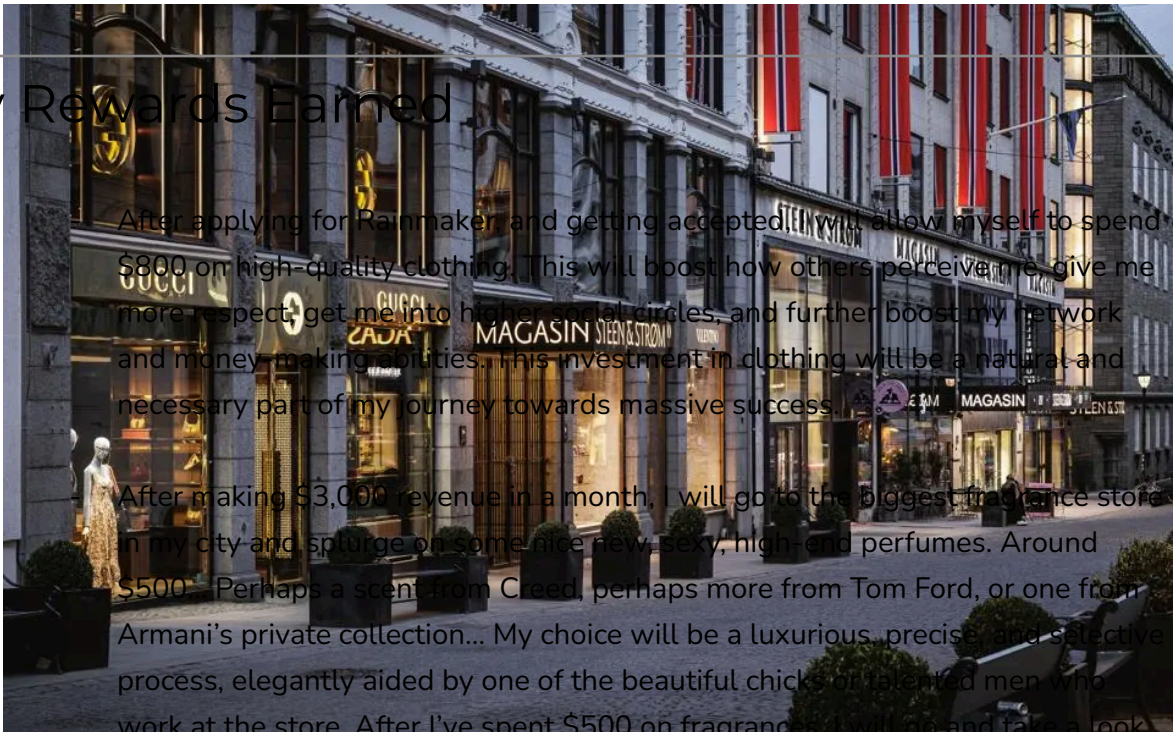

After applying for Rainmaker and getting accepted, I will allow myself to spend $800 on high-quality clothing. This will boost how others perceive me, give me more respect, get me into higher social circles, and further boost my network and money-making abilities. This investment in clothing will be a natural and necessary part of my journey towards massive success.

After making $3,000 revenue in a month, I will go to the biggest fragrance store in my city and splurge on some nice new, sexy, high-end perfumes. Around $500. Perhaps a scent from Creed, perhaps more from Tom Ford, or one from Armani's private collection... My choice will be a luxurious, precise, and selective process, elegantly aided by one of the beautiful chicks or talented men who work at the store. After I've spent $500 on fragrances, I will go and take a look at some Ray-Ban sunglasses- If I find something I like, I will buy myself a pair. Why? Because I'm making an abundance of money and can solve whatever unknown that arises. It doesn't matter if I lose money. I'm capable enough to make it back. I have FULL confidence in my own abilities!

After buying the sunglasses I will take one of my girlfriends out for lunch at a luxurious rooftop bar to catch up with each other, and I will pay the bill for them.

- Upgrading my perception and looks will increase my confidence and help me internalize my greater self's identity.
- After making $5,000 in revenue in a month, I will buy myself a brand new 13' Macbook Pro. Splurge some money on it. Give myself the power to work more efficiently and feel a higher duty to work hard. I AM BUYING THINGS TO

ENGRAVE MY MINDSET, MAKE MORE MONEY, AND ENDLESSLY CONQUER AND WIN!

My Appearance And How Others Perceive Him

- I wear clothing of the finest quality and materials. Expensive for most, but not to me. My body language is exceptional. Open, masculine body language that conveys complete confidence and professionalism. I don't fear anyone. Wherever I am, I feel confident. I am unstoppable. Fire blood powers my heart and brain. I get a haircut every 3rd week to ensure I always look my best. My style is impeccable. I wear the highest quality fragrances, making me smell magnetic to the girls lucky enough to come in such intimate situations with me where they can smell my scent. There's no other man like me. My looks, my drive, my confidence, and my spirit. They lust over me to the point where it's almost funny. I am the fucking man. And, since I'm doing the right things, I WILL become EVEN MORE of the fucking man as time goes on.
- Whenever I enter a room, from pure instinct, people can sense that someone powerful just walked in, someone who is worthy of respect. People can see I have a divine purpose, endless drive, capability, and testosterone. They try endlessly to tap into my dominating, conquering, ever-winning energy. They want to see, on close hold, the hero's journey I'm on. They look at me with awe and utmost respect.
- After consistently being a man of my word, achieving great things, constantly improving, and being capable in all realms of human endeavor, I have become the man my family looks to for strength. When the bad times come I AM THE MAN that will know what to do. I have read The Art of War, I KNOW Strategy. I have READ How to Win Friends and Influence People, I KNOW HUMAN PERSUASION. I AM A PROVEN MARKETER, RAINMAKER, AND MONEY-MAKING MACHINE that has made 100s of thousands of dollars for other businesses and CAN PULL CASH OUT OF THIN AIR. I have all the skills, knowledge, testosterone, and drive to provide for my entire bloodline, thus I am perceived as the man that will save us when things go wrong.

My Day In The Life Stories.

- I wake up early. Well refreshed after a good night of well-deserved sleep. As a testament to my insane testosterone levels and masculine drive, I have a raging boner.
As I open my eyes, I look up through the window on my roof and see the sun still asleep. All I can see is an ever-so-light blue shade in the sky...
- A smile starts to form on my face. Another day of ultimate conquest. Another day I will utilize to become a better, stronger, more capable man.
- Another day I will take giant leaps towards my goals, prove to myself who I am and what I'm made of, improve my social skills and human persuasion, AND make MORE MONEY.
- I am in a grateful state as I slowly regain consciousness and my mind and body start firing up to my normal operating levels. The fire blood starts pumping furiously through my veins. Testosterone is RAGING. Every single fiber of my being has the endless urge to conquer and dominate the world. I WANT MORE. I WANT IT ALL.
- I quickly rise from my white, silk-sheet double bed and jump into the shower. Inside the shower, I cleanse my skin, wash my body, do my facial exercises to better my looks and get ready for the day. After getting out of the shower I go and read my agoge identity to fire up my raging warrior spirit. Then I go downstairs, drink 3 glasses of ice cold water and supplement with omega 3 and vitamin D, walk up again, do my physio exercises, and open up my computer to write GM inside The Real World chats. Right thereafter I go downstairs and eat my breakfast.

- After eating a high-quality breakfast, I go upstairs, brush my teeth, and put on a high-end perfume that suits the feeling and weather of the day— Hahahaha, Now every hot woman in my proximity will instantly wetten up and want me.
- After putting on my perfume I head off to school. On my way there I work on my phone or laptop. Whether that be analyzing copy, reviewing copy, posting content, or doing client work, I always make sure every second I'm awake is spent at maximum efficiency.
- At school I do great. I'm making double the money my teachers do, I pay attention and crush my classes no matter what. In my classes I have fun. I'm laughing with the boys or flirting with some of the hot chicks, improving my social skills, and positively influencing everyone around me.
- During my lunch breaks, I only eat high-quality food. I stay away from cheap carbohydrates, sugar, and dopamine and remain on a healthy diet consisting of organic foods which I can buy, or bring along because I make an abundance of money every month. I AM A HIGH-PERFORMANCE ATHLETE OF LIFE AND TREAT MYSELF AS SUCH.
- After school, I head to the gym. Inside here I lift heavy weights with perfect form, ensuring I build more muscle and become stronger as a man. I push myself to the max. I do whatever I say I will, and remember that "every rep makes me stronger". I feel powerful. I feel strong. I feel TOO HARD TO KILL. NO ONE CAN STOP ME. I'm a machine! Blessed by god! Powered by great ancestors and warriors. I am a graduate of the agoge program and a prodigy in the making! After the gym, I come home, take a shower, and get straight to work. I analyze copy, review copy, do client work, watch courses, post on X, have business meetings, and provide my clients with thousands of dollars worth of value every single day. - I ACT UPON THE WORLD with unbreakable focus, perspicacity, and will...
- I THROW MYSELF RIGHT INTO THE DIFFICULTY AT HAND.

As the evening sets in, I review my day's achievements against my checklist. Satisfaction Fills me; another day of promises kept, another day of moving forward my gigantic goals. For dinner, I eat a high quality piece of steak, seasoned and cooked to perfection. I can feel the energy powering through my veins.

- AFTER A HARD, LONG day of work, and victory is achieved, nothing tastes better than a nice, hot, steak to improve my health, body, and mental clarity.

- Before bed, I spend time visualizing my next day. I read through my identity doc, fill out my 2024 tracker and plan out my next day. I imagine traveling to a new country, exploring and experiencing different cultures, driving fast cars, enjoying beautiful women with nice sexy features, walking around in great clothes, being in amazing shape and inside an amazing community of men, working hard, dominating, and winning in every single realm of my life. The feel of my upgraded 13' Macbook Pro is real in my mind, its capabilities enabling me to achieve even more. The feel of traveling across the world, driving fast cars, being with my brothers, feeling my body's subtle soreness, and knowing that I can keep the people I love safe no matter what comforts me as I drift off to sleep. I am now content, ready to rise again tomorrow, chase my dreams with relentless energy, conquer yet another day, and WIN. I will never stop! I'm a man who has mastered the art of war, human persuasion, and copywriting and is respected by everybody. GOOD LUCK BEATING ME! IT'S impossible. I AM A FUCKING MACHINE!
