

IN THE FACE OF INTENSE BATTLE, ALL YOU NEED TO DO IS READ THIS DOCUMENT.

- DISCIPLINE alone will get you where you want to go. You won't regret having a Bentley with discipline. Focus on improving your videos and becoming an elite marketer. Your brain needs tangible results to lock in better.
- Discipline is a LOVE.
- Go back to that ruthless man, that was the REAL you.
- The fight with your mind is eternal. Master ignoring empty thoughts and work.
- Life is a war, so be it. You are a warrior.
- Starting is the hardest. Once you start trying your best, it will only get easier.
- Don't overthink. Results are the best way to convince your brain. Just reject the bad thought on the spot; this is the skill. Intense training is always the answer.
- As sad as it may sound, your parents will die. You will only have a family you created after some point. Make money, keep your parents alive, and create a family without delay.
- The right woman will give you extreme power.
- Once you defeat a demon/problem once, it becomes inevitable to beat it the second time.
- Getting up at 4:00 shows you want it bad enough.
- Regret is extremely stinky. If you can't control your mind, you are bound to lose.

WHO AM I?

I AM THE CHAMPION! Elite Marketer - Master Salesman - Elite Athlete - Worth $150,000,000 - Professional - Dark Warrior

Life will perpetually hit you. The only way to stand strong is by forging yourself into a CHAMPION! Life is about Aikido. Be uncompromising in your values. It is about sticking to your values and tenets. It is about sticking to your word. Remember how fulfilled and good you were. Make your parents healthy and happy. Do not let that dagger of regret stink throughout your life. Become elite by age 30. Become a millionaire. Effort makes you worthy. There is zero growth and progress in a salary job. Remember how good you felt when you worked hard. DISCIPLINE will mold you into a man who enjoys hard things and cannot be hurt. You suffered too much to be convinced otherwise. You have NO CHOICE. YOUR WEAKER SELF IS THE ENEMY. BECOME ELITE. LIFE IS NOT A JOKE. DO NOT LET ANYTHING WALK OVER YOU. NEVER.

Work hard. Train hard. Become the elite force for good. Do the things you are supposed to do regardless of how you feel. Burn your feelings. Do it anyway. No one will feed you if you go broke. Be aggressive and perpetually channel that anger into the work. Be stressed. Enjoy the stress. Adapt to the circumstances the quickest. Work everywhere. Anger is a gift. Be unbeatable. Be unforgiving towards those who hurt you. You will start enjoying the growth as you push. DISCIPLINE. PERIOD. An aggressive path is what you need. Kill the bear. Rise to the occasion. Anger is all you need to conquer the world. Many will quit along the way. You will WIN. You are the CHAMPION! SWING AS HARD AS YOU CAN POSSIBLY SWING!

Power Phrases (2-3)

- I am the sheer force of nature.
- I am The Champion!
- My name is Turan, and I always find a way to win.

The Reason Why

- Business skills are eternal. There is no limit to the money you can make, as much as $1M monthly. WIN.
- Becoming an entrepreneur is the best way to achieve wealth, independence, and a well-connected network.
- Rich people don't work for money. Only slaves do.
- You want to be remembered for sth after you die. The meaning of life is to have a purpose greater than yourself.
- You can only make $ 5- 6k/month maximum at the slave job. The worst is that you need to waste your life in the same place. Make over $100k+/month, build assets and network, and live wherever you want.
- Becoming a high-quality individual requires effort, discipline, and self-sacrifice. They will mold you into a man who smiles at the trenches and is very respected.
- Love does not buy things, and money does not cheat. Without money, your worth is 0. As a man, you must focus on building your body, mind, and money.
- You cannot tolerate being a loser and living a life of mediocrity.
- What will you do if your mother gets sick and you need 1,000,000 $? Can you live if you can't solve it? - You are a man; you must be prepared and resourceful.
- Success is the only REVENGE. She did not give a shit how you felt; she betrayed your feelings, she made you feel worthless, you could not eat, you could not enjoy anything. It was strategic; it was planned. Forgetting and forgiving are for the stupid. Do not be a FOOL.
- You sacrificed big. You must compensate for it with a bigger win only. Hard work will always be rewarded. By age 35, you will be worth 100,000,000 dollars. That is the goal.
- Money is the ultimate test. You must pass it. You can't fail in the biggest game. As you grow your wealth, multiplying it will only become easier. Build a network, build wealth.
- Winning is the only option. Can you work in the fucking 8-5 for 40 years operating under the command of some dork?

- Become much more efficient with your time, rather than wasting it for 40 years at some shit place. Fight or be forgotten.
