

How To Participate

■ Read the Article Beforehand

- Take some notes in the margin! Reflect on how it applies to your own context, and what takeaways you might have for your own teaching practice

■ Show up Early & Introduce Yourself

- Show up 5-10 minutes early and introduce yourself using the #talkcsed hashtag.
- Search for #talkcsed to see other responses and meet others in the #talkcsed chat!

■ Respond to Questions

- Questions are posted every 15 minutes by the @talkcsed account.
- Write a response and send it off using #talkcsed!

■ Engage with #talkcsed

- Watch the #talkcsed hashtag to see responses come in!
- As the responses flow through your feed, treat it like a buffet - dive into the responses that are appetizing and resonate with you, and pass on the responses that don't fit your diet.
- Each question has a 15 minute answer period; use this time to start conversations and read feedback to your own response.

■ Keep the Conversations Going

- At the end of the night, additional questions will be posted about the article. These are great for continuing the conversations online, or sparking face-to-face conversations to bring back to your in-person educational community.
