

Technology Resources for Language

Google Tools for English Learners (check links):

<https://www.controlaltachieve.com/2018/08/google-ell.html#more>

Same Google Tools info in less visual format

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1AmNCM3nf3tnH8UWL1xYdl9ipsv0PQzNpNxtDIUK1wRc/edit?usp=sharing>

Similar tools from Microsoft

Immersive Reader from Microsoft - This is a free tool built in to all Microsoft products that addresses many barriers to reading, including language barriers.

Start with this intro video to Immersive Reader

“How to” video for Immersive Reader

<https://www.onenote.com/learningtools>

Cult of Pedagogy article on Microsoft Tools

Did you know that you can make any YouTube video with closed captions accessible to language learners? How to change the language in close caption YouTube videos

Google Translate has gotten much better with features like “camera” that you point at text in another language and see it translated right before your eyes.

Google Translate

Google Translate offers translation of text, websites, and documents.

<https://translate.google.com/>

PowerPoint Translation - great for language learners and deaf or hard of hearing students/parents

For computers with Windows 10, you can download an extension to translate PowerPoints.

<https://www.microsoft.com/en-us/download/details.aspx?id=55024>

Talking dictionaries for more obscure languages