

Good morning Orange High School!!!! This is Branden Wang and this is Audra Incledon with your Daily Lion Reminders for Wednesday, December 4th.*

“Don't forget to get into the holiday spirit by bringing in cash & purchasing candy grams for all your friends, teachers, and favorite people! Each candy gram costs $1 and will be sold during lunches. The Junior SGA members will be delivering the candy grams on Friday during, second period”.

“There will be an Orange Outlook meeting this Friday, December 6th after school in the Writing Center. All students who want to write/contribute to the Outlook are welcome! Questions can be directed to Mrs Davis or Mrs McNally.”

“It is that time of year again when we host the Multicultural Holiday Party. Last year, more than 150 students came to the party, and this year we are hoping to top that. The party will be after school on Friday, December 6th from 2:30 to 3:30 in the Commons. Students please consider bringing food, drink, or a game that represents your family's traditions or just perhaps any favorite thing that you would like to share”.

“On Friday December 6th, the OHS Male Minority Leadership Group will host the Annual White Ribbon/White Tie Cleveland City-Wide Campaign and Rally at Orange High School's Auditorium from 12pm to 1pm. This is the 35th Anniversary of the Montreal Massacre, the event that seeded the movement. Take a stance against Gender-Based Violence!”

Upcoming OHS Sports Events:

Wednesday December 4th -
[No events today]

That is all for your quick reminders for today!
And remember it's a great day to be a LION!