SWIPE 2 --

There's a type of virtual currency that's highly guarded, rarely provided, and coveted by all. And it's not bitcoin.

It's an email address -- a digital pot of gold.

A hiring manager, an investor, a recruiter, a founder, a long lost friend from middle school, a hard-to-reach CEO, we've all tried to email them at some point (and failed).

The problem?

Their emails are nowhere to be found.
Or at least pretty difficult to uncover.

Not anymore.

=>> Introducing EmailFindr
