REQUESTING OFFICIAL

"I acknowledge I have been free to discuss, consult, communicate or jointly confer with higher reviewing authority prior to proposing this action if I deemed it desirable to do so. I have made an independent substantive¹ review of the evidence. By my signature below, I certify this request is based on my own judgment and recommendation, and is not the product of a "command decision" and has not been imposed upon me by higher authority in any manner."

I certify I have observed the employee's Weingarten Rights:

CONCURRING OFFICIAL²

"As the concurring official, I certify I have not coerced, ordered, or influenced the requesting official(s) to arrive at any particular conclusion in this matter. I understand I am not required to conduct an independent investigation of the matter in question, but by concurring with the requesting official's proposal, I claim I have made an independent, substantive review of the evidence and record presented to me by the requesting official(s)."

Additional comments if desired

Concurrence is not required for Letters of Warning

¹ Substantive means "independent in existence or function, not imaginary, real, and not subordinate."

² Required for all suspensions and discharges. For the Rural Carrier and Mail Handler Crafts, it must be in writing and dated. While "written" concurrence is not required for the other crafts, it is recommended. Concurrence is not required for Letter of Warning or EAS.
