

DESIGN A TOURIST BROCHURE!

Follow these steps:

- Search for information about your English-speaking city (www.wikipedia.org)
- Search for pictures on the internet (google images)
- Fold a DIN A-4 sheet into thirds as if it were a real leaflet
- Be creative and use any material you like to elaborate your leaflet!

DESCRIBING the CITY (See handouts with model texts)

a) Include information about the following aspects: location and number of inhabitants, typical food, leisure time, cultural events and important dates, places to visit, etc.

b) Remember the aim of your leaflet: To make the place attractive to potential visitors.

c) Useful language:

Vocabulary: Adjectives (awe-inspiring, breathtaking, fascinating, sensational, marvellous, outstanding, superb, delightful, impressive, surprising, well-known, popular, so-called, famous, massive, huge, enormous, relaxing, entertaining, cosmopolitan)

Nouns (marvels, wonders, landmark, refuge, meeting point, spot, scenery, landscape)

Verb tenses: Imperative: Experience the best of the Australian landscape; don't miss your opportunity to discover mankind history at the British Museum)

Will+bare infinitive: You will enjoy awe-inspiring views as you leave Edinburgh
