

Residency Help in Poland

Secure Legal Stay in One of Europe's Fastest-Growing Economies

What Is Poland Temporary Residence Card (Karta Pobytu)

Poland issues a Temporary Residence Card to non-EU nationals who plan to live legally in the country for longer than 90 days. This permit allows you to work, study, run a business, or live with your family under full legal protection.

Once approved, your TRC gives you legal status in Poland and visa-free access across the Schengen Zone.

Who Needs a Poland TRC

You need a TRC if you plan to:

- Work in Poland under an employment contract
- Operate or invest in a Polish business
- Study at a Polish school or university
- Reunite with a legally resident spouse or parent

Note: Without the card, you lose the right to remain past the initial visa or visa-free window. Border authorities track overstays closely.
