

Tales from the Korps:

Misadventures in SCIENCE, villainy, and identity

A place for the nerdy writings of Deadbolt

Main “Cannon” Tales

Long form stories that make up the backbone of my contribution to the KEU. Content warnings marked at the beginning of each chapter.

Note: This “Cannon” is my own. None of this is to be taken as authority over any other KEU or Main Cannon work.

Black Dog(s) - 202X

After abandoning his old life to seek out something more than the grinding drudgery and ethical duplicity of corporate life. A young grizzly takes his first steps into the world of supervillainy. The realities of field work soon set in though. As he finds himself thrust into a world of corporate warfare and the machinations of dark gods.

Shorts and Smaller Tales

Short stories that slot into the larger cannon while also being relatively self contained.

Blue Falcon - 2024

Rasa metes out retribution against a murderous superhero.

NSFW Shorts, Tales and Tails

Supervillainy isn't all life and death. Sometimes you need to let off a little pressure. Or add some~.

[NSFW] Board Meeting

Aarler and Rasa put on a show in the office of a notorious defense contractor's office. That poor desk will never be the same. [C/W: Vore (implied), cum inflation, rough sex, dominate/submissive]
