SURPRISING PLOT TWISTS

NON-STOP SUSPENSE

Shanola Hampton takes charge in NBC's new must-watch drama: FOUND

Get ready for one of the most anticipated new series of the season!

Shanola Hampton, known for her work on Shameless, stars as Gabi Mosely, a fearless operative who makes it her personal mission to find missing people. She'll do whatever it takes to solve cases, even if it means facing her own former kidnapper head-on.

"Found is the procedural you didn't know you needed," Shanola said while filming the pilot. The show addresses a real-life social issue—because missing person cases involving people of color often go ignored and unreported. "This is not like anything you've seen on TV before," Shanola said.

The first episode is a wild and emotional ride! "I have been so excited for everyone just to get to the end," Shanola said. "That's what really attracted me to Found."
