

MK.NET Code of Conduct

MK.NET is dedicated to providing a welcoming and harassment-free experience for our event attendees, regardless of gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ability, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, religion or political views (or lack thereof, as applicable).

MK.NET does not tolerate harassment of participants or volunteers at any time nor in any form.

All communication throughout the event should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of many different backgrounds. Sexual language and imagery is not appropriate for any part of the event, including talks, or at the venue.

Please be kind to others. Do not insult or put down other attendees. Behave professionally. Remember that harassment and sexist, racist, or exclusionary jokes are not appropriate for MK.NET events.

Attendees violating these guidelines may be asked to leave the event at the organisers' sole discretion and will not have a right to a refund (if applicable).

Your safety and well-being is MK.NET's top priority. For help or support from the volunteers whilst attending an MK.NET event, please talk to Layla Porter, Shahid Iqbal or Jim McGowan employee at the event or via any communication channel that you feel confident using.

Thank you for helping to make MK.NET events welcoming, friendly events for all.

If you experience or witness unacceptable behaviour at our events, we provide an automated system to report and log problems. Please send a SMS message to 07492 885157. This will not add your number to a mailing list. The log is visible only to MK.NET organisers.
