

Grade 9 Language Arts

Animal Farm Reflective Task

We have considered the first seven chapters of George Orwell's work, Animal Farm. For your first writing task of the year, please consider the following themes and create a reflection that explores one or more AND includes specific examples from the novel to illustrate your points.

- Loyalty
- Corruption
- Equality
- Idealism

You will have an opportunity to draft your work and conference with a classmate or your teacher. This is an opportunity to further revise your work to include additional excerpts or ideas from the novel. All work will be typed in class on Tuesday, printed and handed in by the end of class.

Feedback/Assessment: For this task, your work will receive a complete/incomplete grade as well as formative comments from Mrs. Stafford. Formative comments are those which we can use moving forward as writers; for example, when we attend to our first essay towards the end of the month.
