Want something cool to show off? Learn how to fold an origami crane! 🦅

Thank you @user for creating this post ❤️

If you're new here, welcome to Origami For Good! We're a community of volunteering/art lovers who practice the amazing Japanese tradition of origami. 📧

We send our origami to the elderly, soldiers, and youth all around the globe in order to establish social connection, appreciation for Japanese culture, and creative thinking. 💭

Whether you would like to earn service hours or make Japanese art, join our team and be eligible for recognition such as the PVSA or volunteer of the month. 🙌

Want to contribute to something good? Want to see real impact that will show people what and who you've helped?

Well, we are Origami for Good, an organization dedicated to helping people such as the elderly, soldiers, and the sick.

How do we help them? Well, for starters, we work with volunteers all around the globe to fold origami and write encouraging messages. Then, volunteers send their creations to one of the many facilities we've partnered with to distribute among their citizens.

Still curious? Come contact me at insert link to person's LinkedIn or visit origamiforgood.org to learn more!
