

CALL FOR ARTISTS

DEADLINE: 15TH AUGUST 2025

EVENT DATE: 25TH OCT 2025

Altered Images is a platform for experimental film, video art, installations, and live music. We invite artists with a penchant for innovation and experimentation to showcase their works. Our goal is to curate engaging events featuring live music, projections, and art installations within the London artist scene. We're seeking risk-taking artists who embrace collaboration and enjoy exploring the transformative power of sound. Join us in creating forthcoming events where audiences can immerse themselves in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere, experiencing the exciting fusion of visuals, music, and artistic expression. Submit your innovative creations and be part of this dynamic community.

We are looking for a varied range of artists and proposals:

Musicians:

Calling all daring musicians! Join us for the fifth edition of the Altered Images Film and Music Fest. We're seeking talented artists for 20-minute performance slots where films will be reimagined through your captivating music. We provide a curated film selection for you to create original soundscapes. Experimental and risky music across all genres is our preference. Showcase your creative prowess and push the boundaries of artistic expression. Don't miss this opportunity to captivate our audience with your innovative compositions. Submit now and be part of the transformative Altered Images Film and Music Fest.

Performers:

Calling all immersive performers! Join our festival and create an exclusive, image and sound-driven performance. We're seeking talented artists to captivate our audience, inspired by our film selection. Push the boundaries of artistic expression and immerse our attendees in an unforgettable experience.

Art Installation:

Calling all visionary artists! Showcase your original work at our festival through captivating installations. We offer a dedicated space within the venue, where your masterpiece will be exhibited on the festival day. We're specifically seeking installations in the realm of digital, media, and audiovisual arts. Share your proposal, and we'll evaluate its feasibility, quality, and alignment with our event. Bring us your greatest idea, and we'll support you in its production. Don't miss this opportunity to amaze our audience with your innovative creations. Submit your proposal now and let your art come to life at our festival.

Djs:

We are seeking DJs and electronic musicians with a strong affinity for techno, dark wave, minimal, industrial, and experimental electronic music. Our goal is to create an immersive session that perfectly complements the visual art of Altered Images. Join us in crafting a unique, multisensory experience.

There is also a chance to do a multiple collaboration between a film, a musician and an installation.

This is an independent project and therefore, low budget, but it is still a paid gig.

The event is London based and therefore we are looking for artists based in London or with an easy commute, as we will not be able to provide travel or accommodation costs.

Send your portfolio and proposals indicating in the subject: MUSICIAN, INSTALLATION, DJ or PERFORMER for ALTERED IMAGES FEST.
