

Stillwater / Sweet Grass Special Services Cooperative Newsletter September 2025

Mountain West Neurodiversity Conference

Montana State University will be hosting the 1st Neurodiversity Conference in Billings from September 18th to 20th. National Speakers such as Barry Prizant and Jessica Minahan along with other speakers will be present. See <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/mountain-west-neurodiversity-conference-tickets-1368027831069> for more information.

Autism Recognition, Response & Risk Management Training

On October 3rd in Billings, a training covering autism recognition, communication, crisis response, safety, search and rescue, interviews, and community partnerships will be held and is designed for families of individuals and school employees, along with others. Register at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/asd-recognition-response-risk-management-billing-tickets-1618508355059?aff=ebdsoporgprofile>

Post-secondary Transitions

A new list of post-secondary transitions resources for Yellowstone and 10 surrounding counties has been released. View it at https://mcusercontent.com/ca7019952c06a5b06874a4838/files/7a80acee-2aee-94ef-4430-e7ca6f6737c3/Region_3_Transitions_Guide.01.pdf