

Join the TAA!
taa-madison.org/join

Email us!
taa@taa-madison.org

The TAA (Teaching Assistants Association) is the labor union representing all graduate student workers at UW–Madison (TAs, PAs, RAs, GAs, and Fellows).

We are the oldest graduate employee union in the world. Organizing began in 1966 and the first contract with the university was completed in 1970.

Any graduate student at UW-Madison is welcome to join

Tell us what you and your colleagues need
taa-madison.org/survey

Member events
taa-madison.org/events

We want YOU

(yes, you!)

to join your union & make life better for UW-Madison graduate workers

Join the union today!

taa-madison.org/join

Dues are on a sliding scale based on income

 3 min

Tell us how your work is going:

taa-madison.org/survey

Fill out our organizing survey as we prepare for the end of anti-union Act 10 and tell the University to meet and bargain with us

 10 min

Join an organizing meeting!

5:30: Intro to TAA // 6:00: Pizza & organizing

Sept. 15: Welcome town hall!

Oct. 14: Organizing & Governance meeting

Nov. 12: Organizing meeting

Dec. 7: Organizing & Governance

Or come to a happy hour! •

taa-madison.org/events

 1 hour

TAA is an Organizing Union: The more we work together, the more powerful we are! Scan a QR code or look inside to get involved

Improving your department or grad program through organizing

The beating heart of union work is organizing — working together to demand and create better conditions. Teaching Assistants Association members, organizing within their departments, have won:

- Pay increases
- Fee remission
- Protections against overwork
- And more!

What do you want to win?

TAA stewards are responsible for organizing their department, and coordinate with and learn from other stewards through the stewards' council. Email stewco.chair@taa-madison.org to get involved or learn more!

Fighting for the rights of vulnerable grad workers

Ask about our working groups — for International Students, Disability Justice, Political Education & more! Email us at taa@taa-madison.org

Helping behind the scenes

 Is graphic design your passion?  Are you terminally online?  Are you a spreadsheet jockey? Help us with communications, social media, organizing data, and more! Get in touch at taa@taa-madison.org

Asserting your rights at work

Are you dealing with bullying, harassment, or unfair/dangerous working conditions?

Are you being disciplined or retaliated against by your supervisor, your program, or the university?

You have rights! Email TAA's Contract Enforcement Committee at cec@taa-madison.org

We help you contest and overturn:

- student conduct charges,
- expulsions/suspensions,
- pay decreases & contract violations
- and more!

A union representative can join you in disciplinary meetings, help you file written grievances, and help organize your colleagues to support you.

A union rep is not a lawyer, but they can help you look for legal assistance too.

Do you want to help other students facing those issues?

This work is only possible through grad workers volunteering their time and experience. Ask about joining the Contract Enforcement Committee, and we'll get you trained and plugged in! cec@taa-madison.org