

1) I would want peace and would want them to live with us because fighting is useless because it kills people and we are both the same in lots of ways but some not.

2) The Battle and when Terrence was not letting us choose and then we chased him into jail and got a new leader.

3) It teaches us problem solving and responsibility because having a job is a responsibility and we had to figure out what to do.

4) Really good because I was quiet when everyone else was loud.

5) To maybe go outside and play on donut hill and pretend that is our island.
