KARAKURI BURST

*Standing still in the middle of this sleepless town.
With this sin of mine. Why can't I seem to bring it down? It's futile
Trying to conceal the frenzy underneath my sleeve.
Please wait for just a little longer, help me let this madness leave.*

*Just stay, the night is young, it's only 3 am. (only 3 am)
As I ventilate this crimson-stained desire,
Pulling the trigger resting within my hand.
My fingers will be dyed brilliant red.*

*Annihilate it all (Annihilate it all)
It's still not enough to satisfy,
This unfading thirst for destruction.
Fragile, fragile how fragile we all are.
We're nothing more (nothing more). Than just thrown away marionettes.
For what purpose was I created?
Tell me why was I born into this cruel world*

Coincidence is just another worthless word
All is set apart in seas endless black and white
Good and Evil has been labeled from the start
Follow me, as I snap my fingers, to eradicate all evil.

Just stay, the night is young it's only 3 am (only 3 am)
As I hunt down all who lives in the world of darkness
There is no escape from, I'll chase all to the end
Until no speck of ash remains behind

Annihilate it all! (Annihilate it all!)
I shall eliminate the darkness within
There is no end to destruction
Let all evil perish by these hands of mine
After all (after all) they're nothing more than useless trash
For what purpose are you still living?
Shall I give you the answer that you seek.

*Annihilate it all (Annihilate it all)
It's still not enough to satisfy,
This unfading thirst for destruction.
Fragile, fragile how fragile we all are.
We're nothing more (nothing more).
Tell me why was I born into this cruel world*

Annihilate it all! (Annihilate it all!)
I shall eliminate the darkness within
There is no end to destruction
Let all evil perish by these hands of my
After all [after all] they're nothing more than useless trash

CONNECTING

Find a reason to sing
May I meet with you again
Beyond everything you gave to me, you taught me how to sing.

By whom, this lonely melody was left by?
Suddenly taken again?
Carried away by someone no one knows.
We may not know, anyone's name or face
But a miracle was made, a connection to brighten someone's day.

Staring at the screen, full of deep longing,
Feeling jealousy that I can't comprehend.
Until now...

Find a reason to sing
With you singing by my side
Caught up deep in the music, as I lose my sense of time
Find a reason to sing
One is good enough for me
It is heaven's gift to you, a talent that's one of a kind

Ooh~

Connecting, Connecting, with your song
Connecting, Connecting, with your dream
Connecting, Connecting, with your life
Connecting with you!

With whom have we, made bitter enemies with?
Defeated by the hands of?

And what did we lose in the midst of 'war'?
Even if we, know not of anyone's names
Twisted words stolen away,
the happiness from someone else's day

For a time too long, beliefs never strong
I could never put my thoughts into words
Until today...

Find a reason to sing
With you singing by my side

It feels like I'm not alone, just for the very first time

Find a reason to sing
One day, let us talk again

When the time comes, I will look into your eyes and greet "Hello"

Ooh-!

Connecting, Connecting, with your song
Connecting, Connecting, with your dream
Connecting, Connecting, with your life
Connecting with you!

Aah-!

Ooh-!

Aah-!

Everything is too hard for me right now!
Begin downloading the dreams from your monotonous days
Everything's a little crazy right now!
And then upload your feelings, the abundance of your heart!

In the crowds, why would encounters happen between people?
Easily, connecting, celebrate and laugh together!
Tell me then, what is about to happen in the future?

Maybe nobody knows

To whom this voice belonged to, crying for help
Having lost a place to call home
Alike the me from days of history
We may not know, each other's name or face
But you still helped me all the same
And I was saved and blessed with thoughtful care

From behind the screen, because now it seems that it is my turn to reach out my hand
To connect with others now!

Find a reason to sing
With you singing by my side
Caught up deep in the music, as I lose my sense of time
Find a reason to sing
It's for sure this fact is true
It is heaven's gift to you, a talent that's one of a kind

Find a reason to sing
May I meet with you again
Beyond all you gave to me, you gave me the reason to sing
Find a reason to sing
Let us all sing hand in hand
Little though this song may be, but, please accept this gift from me

Connecting, Connecting, with your song
Connecting, Connecting, with your dream
Connecting, Connecting, with your life
Connecting with you!

Once again!

Connecting, Connecting, with your song
Connecting, Connecting, with your dream
Connecting, Connecting, with your life
Connecting with you!

KANON 69

Beast in the Beauty

Alone, I fell in love with him, taken in by that pretty face
I'm falling deeply.
With thoughts of you in my mind, [it's just another / tonight will be a] sleepless night.

He told me all the folding stuffs were what he needs
Easily, [taming all / tame] the women who can never see!

[But even so
If you are willing to give me that smile
I will be ... Happy with all that I have or

* Even so I
Will always be satisfied to comply
No matter, as long as you'd smile at me]

Playing the dog, devoted to never let her voice out / If I can play the faithful dog who will never cry out
Then surely he would come to [give back the love I gave / love me as I have loved] him
Fulfilling every dream, [that] you ever wanted
'll give my first love, I'll give you my everything.

The clothes that I [was proud of / had cherished], traded in for the tears (?)
I won't need back my favourite shoes I've pawned [into the night / to the darkness]
[If] it's what I have to do, for a girl to get through life
Really, it's fine.
I'm fine with this way.

A nightmare keeping me awake, whose shadow is it I have seen?
Burning in chest
Please soothe me with your voice, [and let me fall asleep again / assure me it was just a dream*]

He told me all the folding stuffs were what he needs.
Fooled by a pretty face, I failed to see where your heart is.
Why couldn't I, have gone on like how it was before
Never finding what lay underneath that mask?

Hey, although I want to cry, I can't let a single sound out
Is it the collar I had wound on my neck too tightly?
Gave up and gave you all, [everything that I had / all that I ever had]
So tell me, why? Hey tell me it's really a lie!

Don't try to lead me [astray / away] with your gentle and kind voice
Don't let me into thinking that I was ever yours
How am I to go on living a life like this?
Here I am now, left all alone in the freezing rain / *Left in the rain, alone to take on the freezing pain.

Midnight [be]falls, open your door to me, my sweetheart
For what I have with me is all that you desire
If this is all that I need to attain your heart
Then I'd say it's worth it all the way.

Holding me within your embrace, my one beloved
Giving a kiss with the usual gentleness.
And on this final night, let me dream a little dream
So that I won't ever forget you.

Who ever said a silent dog means it is a tame one?
Don't try to make a fool out of me, or you'll regret it!
If I'm but a reserve only for you to rob from
Then take it all, my rage and my everything!

Still with the face that of a beautiful woman now,
And with the fangs of a wild beast you had set on yourself
"I choose to live my way. It's how I make through this life"
Now my dear, I'll lean to your neck

And take out a bite you deserve

SENTIMENTAL ANDROID

In summer rain, a rusted voice is giving,
Just like every other day, the same 'No anomaly' sign
Don't hear the whispers that someone said otherwise
Pretending not to notice, the unclear premonition.

Even if I were to disappear
Without missing a beat, [and] continue on
Gears of this beautiful world will turn
Without even a crack, just perfectly

In unison, walk a perfectly timed rhythm
Going on, the never ending or unchanging days
Simply waiting for the time that I will break apart
Today, I am following suit again

There is something in my chest I can feel hurting
Maybe then, I am considered a heretic
An illogically sentimental android
Help me stop the gears that's spinning out of my control!

Originally, it's for the sake of humans
That such machines were made and born
And was why we have come this far
But then at a point, we couldn't live together
A deep divide of mistrust, splitting the two apart

Seeking weakness that they [had come to] call love
Letting water named as tears flow from eyes
Why is it that people laugh [so] easily? [So foolishly/Idiotically]
I don't understand

Walking forth in a chaotic match of rhythms
Sketching out a scattered mix of different futures
How are they embracing each and others 'errors'?
I can't understand these humans at all

Yet I am still feeling pain digging in my chest
Certainly, I am considered a heretic
An illogically sentimental android
Won't somebody help me please, now put a stop to me!
I hear a voice...
Sounding just like mine
A loud buzzing that's in my ears
Even though that I know,
That us machines cannot dream, yet why again and again
I keep seeking and tracing out an improbable scene
An unconceivable future that is suffocating the me who doesn't even breathe

Spinning round and round, in a void of my gears, [is] ultimately
A me going towards an end of becoming trash
I found the answer I sought

In unison, walk a perfectly timed rhythm
Going on, the never ending or unchanging days
Simply waiting for the time that I will break apart
Will I carry on and follow again?

Wondering, if there is someone I am walking for?
While the smallest doubt is taking root inside of me
Hear the voice of such a sentimental android
Saying "[Now,] Come and let us tear this [kind of world/boundary] down."

Being struck by the suddenness of a dizzy spell
For a moment, everything around has frozen still
With a crack in perfect days, it will now fall apart
Carving out my very own rhythm

Should I walk just for the very sake of someone else
Shall I maybe take the next step forward for myself?
Going on, just for this sentimental android
"Come and take on all your errors and go on, move forth!"

[Sneers the clown who stood behind me /
Sneering, as [they] stood behind me, a clown]
