

October 17th 2021

General Meeting via Zoom

- Guest Speaker - President Che Weist RCO
 - Building Relationships
 - Common objectives
 - Clear expectations
 - Basic ethics
 - Beyond the Formalities
 - Long term approach
 - Sharing knowledge
 - Teamwork
 - Maintaining Partnerships
 - Regular contact
 - Seeking feedback
 - Following through
 - It is equally as important to be involved in the community as it is to attend general meetings
 - To build a strong organization - get to know each other, especially with zoom and many things being remote
 - Tell your story simply and honestly with passion when trying to create community connections
 - How do you make more connections in the community and ensure that they are meaningful?
 - Reach out, share your goals in person or directly if possible, gain insight on other organizations who may be interested or may want to get involved
- International Service
 - Halifax Helpers
 - Training done
 - Setting up a Q&A meeting for new members
 - Vulnerable Sector Checks in progress
 - First Halifax Helpers Session is on November 2n
 - Canadian Women for Women in Afghanistan
 - Confirmed for November 14
 - Working on a fundraising page with their team and tracking our progress/fundraiser ideas
 - Polio Week
- Community Service
 - New park cleanup this Wednesday at 5pm
 - Shelter Movers Orientation
 - Helping Rotary with the Foodbank, potential daytime volunteering opportunity breakfast
 - Chilly Chili update on Thursday for date and time
- Next meeting - November 7th