Artist Trading Cards

Artist Trading Cards are miniature pieces of art that are traded around the world. For a complete history of this artistic movement, please see https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Artist_trading_cards.

People of all ages and skill levels from around the world create and collect artist trading cards. The artist trading card can be in any medium. People trade their cards for those of others, in our case through the Palermo Community Library artist trading card swap. The Camden Public Library also has an artist trading card swap.

To take a card, you must leave a card.

Official rules:

Card size is 2.5" by 3.5"

Cards must include on the back:

- Title of the piece
- Creator's name
- Where the creator is from (city and state)
- Date created
- Palermo, Maine Public Library Swap
