

2020 SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES/ PRE-COLLEGE PROGRAMS/ PROGRAMS ON COLLEGE CAMPUSES/ TRAVEL

MCPS Disclaimer: "These materials, events or other organizations are neither sponsored nor endorsed by the Board of Education of Montgomery County, the superintendent, or this school."

Indicates conversion to virtual

Websites to explore

- <https://www.teenlife.com/category/gap-year/>
 - Gap year programs before college
- <http://www.usummer.com/>
 - USummer is a site built to help you find pre-college programs
- <http://www.studenteducationprograms.com/>

FREE. AIU High School Diplomats brings American and Japanese students together at Princeton University for a 10-day cross-cultural and educational exchange program. All current sophomores and juniors are encouraged to apply. There is no cost to the participants. Japanese is not a prerequisite. It runs from July 22 – August 2 . Applications must be postmarked by Jan. 8th. Visit <http://www.highschooldiplomats.com/america> for more information

FREE. Bryant University offers The PricewaterhouseCoopers Accounting Careers Leadership Institute. It is a week-long, hands-on opportunity for Latino/a and African American or Black high school juniors (rising seniors) to learn more about the accounting profession and about the key role accountants play in society. Throughout the program, students work directly with Bryant University faculty, staff, and students, as well as professionals from PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), the largest professional services firm in the world. For more info, go to <https://departments.bryant.edu/accounting/about-us>

FREE. MIT announces its MITES Program, (Minority Introduction to Engineering and Science), a challenging 6 week summer program that prepares promising rising seniors for careers in engineering and science. If you are selected, all educational, housing, meals and activity costs are covered. You must, however, pay for your own transportation to and from MIT. To apply, go to <http://oeop.mit.edu/programs/mites> Deadline to apply is February 1, 2020.

FREE. Princeton University announces its Summer Journalism Program for low income sophomores or juniors with at least a 3.5 GPA (on a 4.0 scale) who have an interest in journalism. The cost is free, including travel costs to and from Princeton! Apply now! Go to www.princeton.edu/sjp Application is due February 17.

FREE. SCA – high school conservation crews will spend their summer serving the environment through work in parks and forests. Join a team of 6-8 high school students (15-19 years old) and two trained adult leaders on a two to 5 week long conservation mission. Tuition free!! Except for the $25 application fee. Visit <https://www.thesca.org/serve/national-crews> Deadline is March 4.

FREE Girls who Code: <https://girlswhocode.com/programs/code-at-home>

FREE Girls Who Code for girls in class of 2020 and 2021. Summer Immersion Program is a free 7-week introductory computer science program for 10th-11th grade girls going into their junior or senior year of high school. During the 7-week program, participants learn about computer science, gain exposure to tech jobs, and join a sisterhood of girls who are using computer science to become change-makers. Program is offered in several cities, including Washington, DC. Apply at <https://girlswhocode.com/summer-immersion-programs>

FREE. Questbridge College Prep Scholarship Awards for low-income, outstanding high school juniors covers the cost of pre-college summer programs at Brandeis, Emory, Harvard, Stanford, Notre Dame, Penn, and Yale (40 schools total). Selected students will also get an all expense paid campus visit to one of 31 partner schools and invitations to conferences where students can meet admissions officers from top colleges. Will reopen late summer 2020. www.questbridge.org.

FREE. USC/ Chevron Frontiers of Energy Resources Summer Camp at the University of Southern California is a highly selective program designed to introduce rising juniors and rising seniors to the opportunities and career possibilities available in the global energy resources industry. Twenty students will be selected and will attend without charge. Students are responsible for their own transportation to USC. Deadline is usually in April. Interested students can email for information at: cisoft@vsoe.usc.edu. Applicants should visit <https://cisoft.usc.edu/chevron-usc-partnership-program/frontiers-ofenergy-resources-summer-camp/overview/>

FREE. AMERICAN LEGION BOYS STATE PROGRAM 2020 Dates TBA. Location is McDaniel College, Westminster, MD. The American Legion is sponsoring their annual summer residential program for current H.S. junior boys, called Boys State. The program emphasizes the necessity of participation as a citizen in the government process to ensure continuing freedoms and rights. It is a week of learning & group participation where students are required to work as a team under close supervision. The experiences gained at Boys State stays with the student his whole life. Students will also tour the U.S. Naval Academy and the Maryland Legislature, where they will be addressed by several top state government officials. Boys who attend this program may apply for the Samsung Scholarship grant of $1,000. Proof of military eligibility by parent, grandparent, great grandparent or legally adopted parent who served during a period of war is required only for the Samsung Scholarship. Stop by the College/Career Center for an application.

FREE. AMERICAN LEGION GIRLS STATE PROGRAM. June 21 - 26, 2020 at Salisbury University. Girls State is a residential training program for high school juniors and is operated annually by the American Legion. The objective is to provide “hands on” training in the management of a democratic government at city, county and state levels. There is a $45 application fee but the program is FREE. Stop by the College/Career Center for an application.

ACTIONQuest offers worldwide sailing, scuba diving, community service and marine biology camps for teens. This camp was the best time of my life and I really encourage people to apply-MCPS student. <http://www.actionquest.com/>

AdCamp DC offers an introduction to the exciting world of advertising. A limited number of full tuition scholarships are available. Apply online at www.aaf.org/AdCamp 2020 Updates TBD

Adventures Cross-Country (ARCC) has offered innovative experiences for teenagers in community service, language, and leadership for the past 37 years. There are 22 programs in six continents around the world with both service and travel programs. Visit <http://www.adventurescrosscountry.com/> or call 800-767-2722.

Adelphi University offers Pre-College Programs for students entering their Junior and Senior years of high school. Earn 3 college credits in nursing, business, game programming, psychology or musical theatre and acting, etc. Go to www.precollege.adelphi.edu for more information.

Ag Discovery is a unique opportunity for kids to explore agriculture sciences and gain knowledge about careers with food and animals. There will be programs held nationwide within 20 host universities. Visit at www.aphis.usda.gov/agdiscovery

Alfred University offers summer programs in art - portfolio creation for college-bound artists, creative writing, drone/robotics camp, ceramic and glass engineering, astronomy. For more information visit <https://www.alfred.edu/about/community/summer-camps/residential-camps/academic-camps/index.cfm>

Alzar School brings students to the confluence of engaging academics, cultural exchange and outdoor adventure. Offers semester programs for highly motivated high school sophomores and juniors who want to challenge themselves academically and live alongside peers from across the world. Dive into a new culture in Chile! Financial Aid available. More information at <https://alzarschool.org/>

American Collegiate Adventures where you can choose the summer you deserve. Customize your summer, choosing from a large selection of courses, sports, language study, cultural immersion, internship and community service opportunities. Programs are offered in Wisconsin, Los Angeles, Spain and Italy. Visit www.acasummer.com or call 800-509-7867

American University School of Communication offers high school students an opportunity to explore the world of communication through hands-on courses offered from June 23 to July 17. The program is designed for students who have an interest in film, journalism, multimedia and communication. Admission is from October 1 to June 1. For more information visit www.audiscover.org

American University School of International Service, a top 10 school of international affairs, offers a three week summer program for rising juniors and seniors to broaden their understanding of international relations. Classes are complemented with guest speakers, site visits and briefings at embassies and organizations such as the U.S. State Department, and workshops to build college skills. A residential component is available for those wishing to reside on campus. Must have at least a 3.0 GPA. www.american.edu/sis/communityofscholars or call 202-885-2442

AMP Global Youth is launching a virtual experience this summer to ensure that youth who are passionate about global challenges like COVID-19 have the skills and network they need to succeed. They are also continuing to highlight the youth perspective on COVID-19 on their Instagram page and website and are launching a new call for submissions, too. Global Scholar equips youth leaders to be bold and visionary change makers around urgent global challenges. Participants learn about global issues from experts, build tools for transformative action, and launch careers in international affairs. Global Scholars learn with and from some of the brightest young minds working on these issues today. There are sessions for grades 9-12 beginning in June of 2020. Find out more at www.GlobalScholar.org

ASA SUMMERFUEL (UC Berkeley, U Mass- Amherst, Yale, Stanford, Columbia and Tufts) These programs allow you to experience prestigious campuses, beautiful locations and balance expert instruction, scheduled activities, travel and freedom to foster greater independence and personal growth. Also with SPanohs language and tech programs! For more information visit www.summerfuel.com or call 212-796-8340

ASSE International Student Exchange Programs is a four to six week long exchange program in countries in Europe, South America, Central America, North America, New Zealand, and South Africa. You must be between 15 and 18 ½ years old when departing and have a B/C grade average. For more information visit

https://asse.com/become_an_asse_exchange_student/summer_programs/

Babson is a four week residential summer program where high-achieving students will be able to live like a college student, learn like an entrepreneur, and be inspired to tackle some of the most significant issues impacting their communities. It is from July 6 to August 2 and allows students to earn four college credits towards their undergraduate experience. More info at

<https://www.babson.edu/admission/visiting-student-programs/babson-summer-study/>

Banson NYC is a fashion camp for high school students with week long sessions that teach students the fundamentals of the art fashion industry by providing an insiders perspective. The camps run from 9am to 5pm Monday through Friday. Applications are on a first come first serve basis. Students will be staying in the LIM College dorms on the Upper East Side. More info at

<https://www.bansonnyc.com/content.html?page=15>

Barnard College of Columbia University offers young men and women who are rising juniors and seniors the unique opportunity to take either 1 week or 4 week courses in a variety of topics including Architecture, Dance, Writing and Leadership while exploring NYC both in and out of the classroom. For more information visit <https://barnard.edu/pre-college-programs-barnard>

Berklee College of Music Summer Programs offers one-five week programs taught by members of the Berklee College of Music faculty. Programs in music performance, composition, music production, dance and theater, and music business. For more information visit www.berklee.edu/summer

Boston College Summer Experience Program. Spend 6 weeks at Boston College taking college courses and earning college credit. It is open to highly motivated rising seniors with outstanding academic records. For more information call 617-552-3800 or email bce@bc.edu

<https://www.bc.edu/bc-web/sites/bc-experience.html>

Boston University Summer Term offers five different summer programs including a high school honors program and a summer challenge program. The High School Honors Program offers talented rising seniors a rich environment for personal growth through academic achievement. The Summer Challenge Program is an opportunity to preview college life and course-work. Choose from one, two, three or six week programs.

www.bu.edu/summer/highschool

Boston University Program in Mathematics for Young Scientists is an intensive 6 week summer experience in creative mathematical exploration. Financial aid is available. Applications are available at www.promys.org. Program runs July 5 – August 15, 2020.

Broadreach offers hands-on experiential learning with a community service component. Programs are offered in marine biology, natural science, environmental science, medicine, Spanish, photography and veterinary medicine and more. Trips are 14-31 days in length. www.gobroadreach.com or info@gobroadreach.com for more info.

Brown University offers one to 4 week sessions in over 200 courses for talented high school students who want to prepare for college success and experience life as a student on an Ivy League campus. Students can shadow a physician, hone writing skills, map the stars, seek answers to human behavior, examine international affairs, or analyze their own DNA. A limited number of Dean's Scholarships are awarded to Pre-College students who demonstrate financial need and academic merit. Application deadline is in February. For more information and to apply visit www.brown.edu/summer

Bucknell University offers the Bucknell Academy Summer Experience (BASE) in June for five days. Find innovative solutions to pressing issues. Participate in classes such as "Why the Human is First in Human-Computer Interaction; The Good, the Bad and the Ugly on Wall Street; Whose World Needs Saving & Why?" Cost for the program is $1000. For more info and to apply, go to Bucknell.edu/base. Applications are due by April 20.

California College of The Arts offers rising sophomores, juniors and seniors the opportunity to study art or creative writing in an intensive art school setting while earning 3 college credits. From June 22 to July 17. Applications open Jan 8. www.cca.edu/precollege or call 800-447-1ART.

California State Summer School of the Arts provides a four-week summer arts program in the fields of animation, film/video, creative writing, dance, music, theater, and the visual arts. More information and an application can be found at www.csssa.ca.gov. Application deadline is Feb 12. From July 11 to August 7.

Camp Cardiac offers a one-week summer day camp open to high school students interested in exploring careers in medicine. Learn more and apply online at <http://www.campcardiac.org>

Carleton College offers a summer writing program for college-bound juniors with strong reading and writing skills. <https://apps.carleton.edu/summer/writing/> or call 866-767-2275.

Carnegie Mellon offers ten distinct pre-college programs to rising juniors and seniors. Take architecture, art, computational biology, design, drama, music, game academy, math and science, summer session, or writing courses. Call 412-268-5914 or visit <https://www.cmu.edu/pre-college/>

The Catholic University of America School of Architecture and Planning offers a summer pre-college workshop for students interested in architecture, engineering, nursing, art, or other design-related fields. Call 202-319-5786 or visit <http://summer.cua.edu/precollege/>

The University of Chicago offers a wide variety of unique programs for high school students. Students may choose from an array of undergraduate courses to take for credit. For more information visit <http://summer.uchicago.edu>

City Year, Washington DC (AmeriCorps) - Graduating seniors who are not sure what they want to do after high school should consider applying for a paid community service position with City Year, Washington, DC., a group of 17-24 year olds committed to full-time service for ten months in the Washington, DC community. Benefits include: living stipend ($630 bi-weekly), health care coverage, free metro pass, and $6,000 educational scholarship. For more info: www.cityyear.org

Clemson University offers a summer science, engineering and architecture enrichment program. Visit <https://www.clemson.edu/summer/summer-scholars/>

Cleveland Institute of Art offers a two or four week summer program to sharpen your artistic skills, build your portfolio and experiment with new media. For more info, contact Richard Maxwell at 216-421-7461 or Maxwell@cia.edu
<https://www.cia.edu/continuing-education/pre-college>

College for Creative Studies offers students the opportunity to immerse themselves in an art program that best fits their lifestyle. Pre College summer course from July 12 to August 1. Learn more at www.collegeforcreativestudies.edu/precollege

Colorado College offers summer programs and summer sessions in a variety of courses. Experience what it is like to be a student at a highly selective liberal arts college. For more information visit <https://www.coloradocollege.edu/offices/summersession/pre-college/>

Columbia University offers Summer High School Programs in New York City and On campus. Columbia offers pre-college enrichment programs for students entering grades 9-12. These programs are renowned for their academic rigor and instructional excellence. Visit <http://precollege.sps.columbia.edu/highschool>

Cornell Summer College offers three-week and six-week programs for talented sophomores, juniors, and seniors from around the world. Students take fascinating courses with leading Cornell faculty members. Earn college credit and experience college life www.summercollege.cornell.edu.

Cornell University offers The Curie Academy which is a one-week residential program designed for high school girls who excel in math and science and want to learn more about careers in engineering. Students must have completed at least algebra II and have a minimum GPA of 3.0. The Catalyst Academy is a one week program focused on underrepresented minority high school students who excel in math and science and want to learn more about careers in engineering. For more information and an application visit <https://sites.coecis.cornell.edu/curieacademy/> or <https://sites.coecis.cornell.edu/catalystacademy/> Financial aid is available.

CSI Camp offered by Waynesburg University (PA) is a one week program for students entering 11th or 12th grade to give hands-on experience of what they can expect in the forensic science and criminal justice majors and ultimately occupations. Cost is $500 which includes all meals and housing. Registration deadline May 8, 2020. Scholarship application deadline: April 10, 2020. For more info and to apply, go to www.Waynesburg.edu/csi-camp

Davidson July Experience offers a three week summer program for rising high school juniors and seniors. Take two classes in liberal arts disciplines like English, music, math and anthropology. June 28 to July 18. www.davidson.edu/JulyExperience

The University of Dayton women in engineering summer camp. Available to middle schoolers too!
http://www.udayton.edu/engineering/hs_programs/women_in_engineering_summer_camp.php

The University of Delaware Summer College for current sophomores and juniors. Live the life of a college student at the center of the East Coast. Take freshman-level college courses for UD credit while living in state-of-the-art residence halls. For more information and an application visit www.udel.edu/summercollege

Denison University offers the Reynolds Young Writer's Workshop in creative writing for current sophomores, juniors and seniors. June 21 to June 28. For more info, go to <http://reynolds.denison.edu/>

Drexel University's Lebow College of Business offers several programs in business and economics for rising juniors and seniors. Visit <http://www.lebow.drexel.edu/resources/admissions/undergraduate/pre-college-programs>

Duke Summer College is a 4 week summer program for all high school students. Get ahead this summer and earn college credit with academically-motivated students from around the world. Courses offered include game theory, logic, public speaking, introduction to philosophy and much more. For a complete list, go to <https://summersession.duke.edu/>

Dynamy Summer Internship Program. Intensive 2-week experience that allows a group of high school graduates to explore their passions and discover direction through a hands-on internship in Worcester, MA. Internship categories: Animal Care, Arts/Communication/Media, Athletics, Automotive, Business/Finance, Childcare/Education, Craftsmanship, Culinary, Environmental, Government/Civic/Law, Health Care, Human Services, Information Technology, Marketing & Development, Retail, Science. www.dynamy.org. Brochure in B-CC CCC.

Emerson College offers a Summer Journalism Institute and a Political Communication Program for high school students entering grades 10-12. For more information visit <http://www.emerson.edu/academics/pre-college>

Emory University offers a Pre-College Program for rising juniors and seniors which includes both credit and non-credit classes and a College 101 class to help high school students prepare for and learn what to expect from their college experience. A limited number of scholarships are available. Apply online at www.precollege.emory.edu

ERVK the Eleanor Roosevelt Center at Val-Kill offers a Girls' Leadership Workshop program to educate, empower, and activate adolescent girls to become the next generation of social justice leaders. It is open to girls ages 14 - 16. Cost is $2500. Tuition assistance is available. For more info and to apply visit www.ervk.org. Deadline to apply is March 13, 2020.

The Experiment in International Living runs thoughtful cross-cultural summer abroad programs that empower young people to become responsible global citizens and engaged youth diplomats. For more information visit www.experimentinternational.org or call 800-345-2929

Fir Acres at Lewis and Clark is a two week residential program summer creative writing program for 10th-12th graders. From June 21 to July 4. For more info visit https://college.lclark.edu/programs/fir_acres/

Frontiers is a two or four week residential program where students make lifelong friends while participating in hands-on classes and labs to explore STEM and the humanities. For students entering 11 and 12 grade. Deadline is May 15, 2020. More info at <https://www.wpi.edu/academics/pre-collegiate/summer>

4 Star Camps at the University of Virginia offers enrichment and SAT prep. They also offer programs in golf, soccer and tennis. www.4starcamps.com or call 800-334-7827

The Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising offers 3 days of fashion at four different campuses. Explore careers, meet FIDM grads and tour some of the best shopping places in the world. Visit <http://fidm.edu/en/calendar/summer+programs/3+days+of+fashion/>

George Washington University Pre-college Program is open to students in grades 9-11. Also provides an introduction to college life. For more information visit <http://precollege.gwu.edu>

Harvard Crimson Summer Journalism Academy. Online July 27-Aug 7. Improve Your Writing Skills, Understand Your Newspaper, Explore your Future & The Future of Journalism. <https://www.business.thecrimson.com/programs>.

Hollinsummer offers a two-week program that gives rising freshman, sophomore, junior and senior girls a taste of college life. They offer Creative Writing, Science and Math, Whitewater Adventure, Leadership and Service, and Horseback Riding programs. July 19 to July 25. <http://www.hollins.edu/academics/hollinsummer/>

Hood College Young Writers' Conference. Workshops, literary discussion, readings, consultations, guest writers. Workshops in multi-genre writing and fiction for high school students who are serious about their writing, seek to meet like-minded writers, and want to improve their skills. 2020 Dates TBA.. Hood.edu/youngwritersconference.

Hoya Summer offers science and medical academics in one to three week long programs which include biotechnology and nursing. Get to work with patient simulators, cadavers, and lab technology in Georgetown Medical Center. Dates ranging from June 21 to AUGust 8. More info at https://summer.georgetown.edu/?utm_source=SHSmedposter&utm_medium=print&utm_term=FY20 iD Tech Camps offers a fun educational summer camp at American University or Towson University. Learn how to create your own websites using the best industry software. Register at <http://www.idtech.com/teens/> or call 888-709-TECH .

IE University offers team building events, soft skills workshops, and academic programs in specialized track of your interest in an international environment. Two weeks long and for sophomores and juniors. July 6th - 17th. www.ie.edu/university

Indiana University Jacobs School of Music provides an unparalleled band and orchestra experience. June 14 to June 20. <http://music.indiana.edu/summer/music-clinic>

Ithaca College Writers Institute is offering two weeks of intensive writing workshops for high school students. Visit www.ithaca.edu/iwi

Ithaca College Summer Music Academy offers orchestra, voice, jazz programs and wind ensemble for grades 10-12 and band, orchestra and musical theater programs for grades 7-9. More info at www.ithaca.edu/sma or call 607-274-3366

Ithaca STEM Institute. .

Johns Hopkins Engineering Innovation Summer Program for high school students is the summer version of a freshman course offered to undecided engineering majors at JHU. The four week long program consists of lab activities in computer engineering, chemical engineering, electrical/computer engineering, materials science, civil, and mechanical engineering. The course is rigorous and students must have As and Bs in their math and science courses. They must have also taken Alg II, Lab Science (physics, chem or bio) and Trig, or have learned to use the trig functions in another math course. The program is offered at Hood College in Frederick and at several JHU campuses and at Loyola and can be residential or commuter. Need-based scholarships are available for commuter students. For more info or to apply, please visit www.engineering.jhu.edu/ei/ .

JSA The Junior Statesmen Summer School is an exciting opportunity for student leaders who have a passionate interest in politics and current events. It is located on the campuses of Georgetown, Princeton, the University of Virginia and Stanford. Visit www.jsa.org/summer

Landmark College has summer learning opportunities for students who learn differently. Programs for rising juniors and seniors, recent high school graduates and current/ current college students. All programs begin in July. More info at www.landmark.edu/summer

Language Bird. Enrollment closes July 15, 2020. Recommended for ages 12-18. Learn about Spanish, French, Russian and Italian cultures.

LIFEWORKS offers global service learning for teens which combines service projects with cultural immersion, travel, and outdoor adventure. For more information visit <https://www.lifeworksschools.com/>

Marist College offers a pre-college program for rising juniors and seniors. Eleven institutes in the fields of business, the environment, fashion, gaming, sports communication, theatre, Spanish, creative writing and criminal justice. Students will earn college credits. www.marist.edu/summerinstitutes/

Maryland Leadership Workshops at University of Maryland Baltimore County (UMBC) brings together accomplished student leaders and students with leadership potential from around the state of Maryland to network and develop the skills necessary to succeed in all facets of their lives. Week long program for students entering grades 9 – 12 in the fall. Financial assistance is available. Tuition $995. Registration and scholarship information at www.mlw.org.

University of Maryland Terp Young Scholars Program targets college-bound seniors, juniors and sophomores who have a strong academic record and a desire to excel to experience college life while earning three academic credits. Explore academic interests, investigate career opportunities, and explore campus life. An array of rigorous courses are offered for three weeks and are taught by the same award-winning faculty who teach UMD students. July 12 to July 31. Visit www.ysp.umd.edu

University of Maryland's Smith Summer Business Programs offers the Snider Enterprise and Leadership Fellows and the Smith Sports and Entertainment Business Program.

Explore business-related fields and disciplines, develop mentors and a support network, build self-confidence and leadership skills. July 19 to July 31. To learn more and enroll, go to <http://go.umd.edu/smithsummerprograms>

University of Maryland, Maryland Center for Women in Computing

Various camps for high school students offered during the summer. Previous camps have included Cyber Defense Training Camp, Make Your Own Wearables, Introduction to Computing 101 and more. Go to <https://mcwic.cs.umd.edu/outreach#camps> for details.

Miami University Summer Scholars Program. An intense two week program in which students are challenged and do workshops. Participate in an inside look at the college selection and application process. MiamiOH.edu/summerscholars.

MICA Summer offers a pre-college studio residency program in Baltimore or in Tuscany. Either five, three or two week options. Build an application portfolio that stands out! Visit www.MICA.EDU/PRECOLLEGE

University of Michigan School of Art & Design offers a two-week residential program for high school freshmen, sophomores and juniors. It will give participants a taste of college-level studio art and design and a head start on the admissions process. <https://stamps.umich.edu/pre-college>

ONLY $100. University of Mississippi Leadership Summit. Looking for rising seniors, Class of 2020, who have demonstrated leadership leadership. During the program, students will experience a program packed with leadership development, team building and sessions covering ethics, personal responsibility, problem-solving, developing a leadership resume and community outreach. Selected students will be asked to pay a $100 participation fee or provide an ACT/SAT waiver in lieu of the fee. Students are responsible for travel to and from Oxford, Mississippi. All other program expenses will be covered by the university. For more information, contact Lauren Childers at lchilder@olemiss.edu or 662-915-8782. 2020 Updates TBD. Must email.

Montgomery College Youth Programs offers enrichment programs for students in K-12. Visit www.montgomerycollege.edu/youth 2020 Updates TBD

National Geographic Student Expeditions has trips for students completing grades 7-12. Trips from Alaska to Africa to Australia where you get to experience what it's like to be on a assignment for National Geographic. Community service trips are also available for High Schoolers. More information at <https://www.nationalgeographic.com/student-expeditions/>

New York University offers high school and middle school programs for kids interested in how to use microcontrollers, interface sensors, and actuators in workshops led by experts in the robotics field or kids interested in directing, shooting, and editing their own music video or film. More information at <https://www.nyu.edu/admissions/high-school-programs.html>

Northfield Mount Hermon School offers four different summer programs: Rising scholars, College Prep, and English for speakers of other languages. June 27 to August 1. For more information visit www.nmhschool.org/summer or email summer_school@nmhschool.org

Northwestern University offers many different programs for both high schoolers and K-12th graders in college prep, journalism, music, etc. Learn more at <https://www.northwestern.edu/academics/pre-collegiate-programs.html>

University of Notre Dame Summer Scholars and Leadership Seminars. Two weeks of one of over 24 programs from gender studies to healthcare to astronomy. June 27 to July 1. For more information visit <http://precollege.nd.edu/summer-scholars>

Otis College of Art and Design offers a Summer of Art program for students who are 15 or older. It provides an immersion college experience into the field of art and design. Small classes and labs are a part of this experience! July 6 to July 31. Visit www.otis.edu/soa for more information.

Oxbridge Academic Programs offers outstanding academic programs in Europe for top students completing grades 10-12. The program is designed to immerse students in two academic subjects or creative arts while taking advantage of the inexhaustible cultural resources of Oxford, Cambridge, Spain or Paris. www.oxbridgeprograms.com or call 800-828-8349

Oxford Royale Academy Summer School offers high school and middle school students exceptional academic and cultural programs on the campus of the University of Oxford, Cambridge, Yale, London or St Andrews. www.oxford-royale.co.uk

University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business offers pre-college programs in Leadership in the Business World, Management and Technology Summer Institute, and Wharton Sports Business Academy. Apply online at www.wharton.upenn.edu/academics/precollege-programs.cfm

Phillips Exeter Academy for five weeks students study, socialize and live in a multicultural community which is ethnically, racially, geographically and economically diverse. This program is designed to foster excellence in all disciplines associated with the liberal arts tradition. July 6 to August 8. For more information visit www.exeter.edu/summer

Penn Engineering offers intensive courses in cutting-edge technology for talented high school students. Learn how to help preserve this planet! For more information visit <https://ras.seas.upenn.edu/k-12-programs/>

Pratt Institute's Precollege offers a program where students are immersed in art, design, architecture and creative writing at college level. Applicants must be at least 16 years old. Visit www.pratt.edu/academics/continuing-education-and-professional/precollege/

RefAmerica is a program designed to help welcome newly arrived syrian refugees to high schoolers in america. This one month long program from June 26 to July 26 is designed to promote a warm welcome and inclusion of these refugees who have recently resettled across the United States. More information https://montgomerycountymd.galaxydigital.com/agency/detail/?agency_id=76612

Ringling College of Art + Design. Sarasota, FL. Summer of Creativity. June 21 - July 18, 2020. Computer animation, creative writing, film, graphic design and more. <https://www.ringling.edu/PreCollege>. Brochure in B-CC CCC.

$145 Rochester Institute of Technology in Rochester, NY will be hosting Colleges & Careers 2020 for rising seniors this summer. This two day career conference is designed to help students gain the experience and knowledge necessary to start making careers decisions about their future. Students get to choose 4 sessions from various academic areas such as the arts, business, computer science, etc. Students will also get to experience life as a college student by sleeping in the RIT dorms, eating in the cafeteria and participating in Friday night social activities with other college-bound seniors. The cost of the 2 day program is $145 which includes the program, meals and accommodations. For more info, please go to <https://www.rit.edu/emcs/admissions/careers/index.php>

Rustic Pathways offers programs for students aged 12 to 22 in 20 different countries around the globe. Create a powerful relationship between you and the community partners and cross-cultural bonds to positively impact each other and the world around them. More information at <https://rusticpathways.com/#>

Sarah Lawrence College offers residential courses in game design, writing and social from one to three weeks long www.sarahlawrence.edu/highschool

School of Cinema & Performing Arts offers summer programs in dance, film, photo, music, acting and MTB. They have campuses in Los Angeles, New York, and Vermont. Visit www.socapa.org or call 800-718-2787

School of Visual Arts Pre-College Programs are designed for high school students who want to enhance their creative skills and earn 3 college credits over a three week session. A limited number of need/merit-based scholarships are available. To register and for more info, go to <http://courses.sva.edu/special-programs/pre-college-program/summer-program>

Sea World at Busch Gardens is offering a career camp where students can explore their interests in working with animals and get hands-on experience. Grades 10 to 12. For more information, visit: <https://buschgardens.com/tampa/summer-camps/overnight-camps/10-college/>

Skidmore Pre-College offers students a diverse, thought-provoking curriculum within a small tight knit community at an idyllic campus in the perfect college town. From July 5 to August 8. More information at <https://www.skidmore.edu/precollege/>

Smith College. Science and Engineering, Writing, History, Sustainability, Applying to College. For young women in highschool grades 9 to 12. Limited scholarships available. www.smith.edu/summer. Brochure in B-CC CCC.

Smithsonian Summer Camp Youth Teaching Assistants. Camp is hosted on the National Mall and runs June 22 - Aug 21, 2020. Looking for responsible and enthusiastic students between 15 and 18-years old who are interested in becoming Youth Teaching Assistants. Earn community service credits, discover the world of teaching while working alongside professional instructors, and act as role models. Can work one or multiple weeks. Online application at smithsonianassociates.org/ticketing/camp/yta. Deadline for application is March 13, 2020.

The Putney School Summer Arts offers workshops in anything and everything art including, but not limited to, animation, ceramics, dance, farm, fashion, glass and metal art, printing, photography, theater, weaving, etc. Check it out at <http://summer.putneyschool.org/>

Putney Student Travel is a program for elementary to high school students providing meaningful and educational travel opportunities focusing on service, exploration, language, career, and pre-college. Scholarships available. More info at <https://goputney.com/>

The University of Southern California offers four week college immersion programs focused on a subject area of the student's choice. Taste college life while experiencing college academics. Learn more at <http://summer.usc.edu>

Sports Announcing & Sports Journalism Camp offered at Waynesburg University (PA) is for current high school sophomores and juniors and will give students the opportunity to learn and practice the skills necessary to become a successful sportscaster or sports journalist, including play-by-play, reporting, interviewing and more. Cost is $500 for tuition and housing. For more info and to register go to Waynesburg.edu/sportsannouncingcamp 2020 Updates TBD

Stanford University High School Summer College is open to students 16 years of age and older. Students enjoy a wide variety of cultural and social events while taking college courses. June 20 to August 16. Visit <http://summer.stanford.edu/>

Stanford Pre-Collegiate Studies. Programs for students in grades 7-12. Humanities, mathematics, medical youth science, artificial intelligence, international institutes, spcs.stanford.edu/find-yourself.

Stevens Institute of Technology offers pre-college programs for high school juniors and seniors. They offer three distinct programs: technology and the arts, Engineering & Science and Business. <http://www.stevens.edu/sit/admissions/stevens-summer>

Summer Discovery at UCLA, UC Santa Barbara, Michigan, Georgetown, University of Pennsylvania, Emerson, Cambridge, and in Spain and Italy and China offers a real college experience at some of the most prestigious universities. It allows students to challenge themselves academically, as well as experience college life and personal growth. From grades 6 to 12 with one to six week options. Visit www.summerdiscovery.com

Susquehanna University Wind Ensemble Institute High school students talented in woodwind, brass and percussion instruments gather for the summer Wind Ensemble Institute. This week long experience focuses on chamber music and symphonic wind ensemble performance. For more info, go to 2020 Updates TBD <https://www.susqu.edu/about-su/in-thecommunity/summer-high-school-programs>

Susquehanna University Writers Workshop is open to experienced writers entering 11th or 12th grade. It is an opportunity to work in intensive, small-group workshops headed by nationally recognized authors. Visit <https://www.susqu.edu/about-su/in-thecommunity/summer-high-school-program> 2020 Updates TBD

Susquehanna University Leadership Institute for Entrepreneurship (LIFE) is a one to two week program for rising 10th, 11th, and 12th graders. This program gives a hands-on introduction to the decision-making components of entrepreneurship. Apply at www.susqu.edu/life

Syracuse University Summer College for rising high school juniors and seniors. This program offers both a 2-week and a 6-week option designed to help students explore their talents and interests before graduating from high school. <http://summercollege.syr.edu/programs.html>

Tanglewood Institute (Boston University) 2020 Summer Programs. Young Artists Program for students age 15-18 in orchestra, voice, wind ensemble, piano, composition, harp seminar and more. From two to six weeks. <http://www.bu.edu/cfa/tanglewood/program/>

Terp Young Scholars is a competitive three week summer collegiate program based upon academic performance. Students experience rigorous college courses, earn three college credits, and get to participate in activities that incorporate UMD's exceptional resources. There are an array of courses at the cutting edge of theory, thought, and technology. For more information visit <https://oes.umd.edu/middle-high-school-students/terp-young-scholars>

The College of New Jersey offers Pre-College Programs for high school students, both credit and non-credit. The 2 week for credit program offers students the chance to earn college credit for 2 different courses. Previous courses have included American Cities and Suburbs and Intro to Sociology. The one week non-credit program offers students a chance to experience what a college classroom is like and to live on a campus. Go to <https://precollege.tcnj.edu/> for more info and to apply.

The University of Alabama Early College offers multiple summer college course options in every subject. There is also an online option with reduced tuition rates for those who are long distance. Application deadline is April 6, 2020 and there will be an online meeting on April 21, 2020 at 6:30 to 9:00 pm. Visit online at <https://uaearlycollege.ua.edu/>

The University of Notre Dame is currently accepting applications for their summer leadership seminars. This is an academic program hosted by the University July 18-July 29th. The Notre Dame Leadership Seminars invite diverse, highly creative rising high school seniors to explore and engage in a vibrant discourse with world renowned Notre Dame Faculty. Through a series of integrated themes and experiences, students participate in intellectual discourse and discovery through the lens of Catholic social teaching. Online applications are currently available at <https://precollege.nd.edu/leadership-seminars/> Financial aid request form deadline is January 20. Deadline to apply is Jan 27.

The Road Less traveled is a student program for ages 11-19. With programs in every continent (except Antarctica) this program is for students who are into community service, language and adventure. More info at www.theroadlesstraveled.com

The New York Times Student Journeys offers educational travel programs for middle and high schoolers where they visit destinations that The Times have covered. They get an inside view of the topics associated with Times coverage of local issues. More info at <https://www.nytimes.com/times-journeys/students/about/>

Tufts University Summit Program is an exciting 4 week program for rising juniors and seniors held at the Tufts University European Center in Talloires, France. The program offers a college-level course in International Relations as well as a French language course. For more info and to apply go to <https://ase.tufts.edu/europeanCenter/programs/summit/>

University of Delaware offers a five week long, credit-bearing college experience program for rising juniors and seniors. There will be a chance to attend college courses and participate in on and off campus curricular and co-curricular activities. From July 12 to August 15. More information at <https://www.udel.edu/apply/undergraduate-admissions/precollege-programs/>

The University of Chicago offers students a chance to explore the world of economics, conduct meaningful research, and enjoy the excitement of college life. Learn how fossils are analyzed, dive into biological techniques used in research laboratories. More info and application at <https://summer.uchicago.edu/>

The University of Hartford invites students to spend the summer exploring music teaching and learning. Three and six week core co

United States Air Force Academy Summer Seminar offers a two-week summer session to juniors going into their senior year who would like to experience what the Academy is all about. Apply online beginning December 1 at <http://www.academyadmissions.com/admissions/outreach-programs/summer-seminar/> The application deadline is January 15.

United States Coast Guard Academy AIM Summer Program is a one week program for juniors going into their senior year who would like to experience life at the Academy. Apply online beginning on Feb 1, 2020. Application closes April 1, 2020. <https://www.uscga.edu/aim/>

United States Military Academy Summer Leaders Seminar This is an opportunity for juniors to gain a better understanding of the academic, physical and leadership development programs at a service academy. One week sessions. To apply visit <https://www.usma.edu/admissions/summer-program> Apply beginning on January 15. Deadline March 15. Apply early! Decisions start Feb 1.

The United States Naval Academy Summer STEM Program offers enrichment programs for students 9th – 11 grade. Applications open online: January 3.

The United States Naval Academy Summer Seminar offers an enrichment program for students rising seniors. Recommended if you are looking at the naval academy as a top choice!! Application opens online: January 3. www.usna.edu/admissions/nass

United States Marines Summer Leadership and Character Development Academy (SLCDA) is offered to rising juniors and seniors, 16 – 18 years of age, who have a minimum 3.0 GPA and who have participated in athletic, leadership, and service-oriented activities. The week long academy is held in Quantico, VA and seeks to strengthen students' confidence and leadership skills. Applications can be found at <https://slcda.marines.com/> and are due by January 31, 2020.

US Performing Arts Camps offers varying programs for students ages 11-20 in disciplines of acting, animation, film, music, screenwriting, theatre, voice, and more. To request a catalogue go to usperformingarts.com or call 888-497-3553

USC Summer Programs offers programs in over 12 different areas of study. Earn college credit and live on the campus while exploring LA with trips related to your field of study. <https://summerprograms.usc.edu/>

Vanderbilt Summer Academy offers one-week, two-week, and three-week sessions featuring challenging courses taught in university classrooms and laboratories by Vanderbilt faculty and graduate students. Available for grades 7 to 12. www.PTY.VANDERBILT.EDU

Virginia Tech College of Engineering is sponsoring a two-week residential program to develop and sustain the interests of girls in engineering and the sciences. <https://eng.vt.edu/ceed/ceed-pre-college-programs/c-tech2.html>

Visions Service Adventures offers high school students ages 14 to 18 opportunities for ambitious service work and cross-cultural immersion at home and abroad. Visit www.VisionsServiceAdventures.com or call 800-813-9283.

Washington University in St. Louis offers a high school summer scholars program for students looking to get a head start on the college experience. Students can also explore their interests at their Pre-Med, Writing, Pre-Engineering, or Business Institutes. Visit summerexperiences.wustl.edu or call 866-209-0691

Washington University in St. Louis offers courses in architecture for two weeks and art and design for three weeks. You can expect field trips and will be living on-campus in the residence halls during your stay. Applications open Dec 1 and close Apr 15. Apply www.samfoxschool.wustl.edu/precollege

Washington University Summer Scholars offers two sessions of credit courses. Open to current sophomores and juniors with a B+ GPA and 1200 SAT/25 ACT or 180 PSAT. For more information and application materials visit <http://summerexperiences.wustl.edu/> or call 866-209-0691.

WHERE THERE BE DRAGONS offers learning adventures in the developing world. For more information call 800-982-9203 or visit www.wheretherebedragons.com

The College of William and Mary offers the NIAHD Pre-Collegiate Summer Program in Early American History to rising juniors, rising seniors and graduating seniors during two three-week sessions. For more info and to apply go to www.wm.edu/niahd

WPI frontiers offer a summer program for soon-to-be-juniors and seniors interested in science, math, engineering and robotics. For more information visit www.wpi.edu/+frontiers Writopia. Our age-based workshops give young writers the opportunity to work on their own pieces alongside four to six peers. All workshops are guided by a published author or produced playwright who are thoroughly versed in Writopia's student-centric methodology.

Young Writers' Conference at Washington College. July 15-18, 2020. Washington College, 300 Washington Avenue, Chestertown, MD 21620. At The Young Writers' Conference, students participate in intensive creative writing workshops in a choice of three genres (poetry, fiction, or creative nonfiction). They discuss literature at the college level with current English faculty, attend craft panels, and participate in open mics. And they can take an optional class in how to draft effective college admissions statements. Register by June 15 at <https://www.washcoll.edu/ywc>. Eight full cost tuition merit scholarships available.