- Staff meets to form groups based off of DIBELS assessment data
- Groups will be flexible; once students become proficient in the skill that the group is working on they will move out of that group
- Small groups will be led by classroom teachers and instructional specialists
- Small groups will be focused on a literacy skill to provide instructional support to obtain proficiency
- Parents of students that are in small groups will be initially notified at parent-teacher conferences
- Larger groups will be led by specials teachers, Mr. Ewald, and support staff
- Larger groups will focus on literacy extensions

When: Every Tuesday and Thursday, 8:10am to 8:40am

We will begin practicing on getting everyone to their location on Oct. 29th and 31st

Learning will begin on Nov. 5th

Why/How: Please check mrewaldblog.blogspot.com on Monday for more narrative introducing this. A link to the blog will be posted to the school's Facebook page once the blog is published.
