SLATESKIN is highly intelligent, permitted education despite her conditions.
SLATESKIN also presents with hypophurnia. Gear summoning advised against.
SLATESKIN presents with spreading stone like lesions during each use of her gear.

NOTES : Slateskin is permitted with a communication device. She's also allergic to Crimsonrine and peanuts. Half deaf and her horns are extremely brittle. She understands BSL (Blackrockian Sign Language)

Slateskin is a dark skinned inphernal with tanish-yellow horns. Her horns are unique with a broken one on her left and a tear drop esque one on her right. She has a small set near her cheeks as well. Her stone lesions are on her left and affect up into her broken horn as well as her left shoulder.
She appears to have the characteristics of a millipede.
